NATION'S LOSS.

GROVER CLEVELAND DIES AT PRINCETON.

Ex-President of United States Succumbs Suddenly to Heart Failure.

Official Statement Says Stomach and Kidney Troubles Superinduced Fatal Illness—Nation Is Plunged Into Mourning—Funeral Friday Will Be as Unostentatious as Possible—Many Distinguished Men to Attend.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PRINCETON (N. J.) June 24.—Grover Cleveland, twice President of the United States, died at 8:40 o'clock this morning, at his home, Westland, in this quiet college town, where he had lived since his retirement as the nation's Chief Executive, almost twelve years ago.

When death came, which was sudden, there were in the death chamber, on the second floor of the Cleveland residence, Mrs. Cleveland, Dr. Joseph D. Bryant of New York, Mr. Cleveland's family physician and personal friend; Dr. George R. Lockwood, also of New York, and Dr. John M. Carnochan of Princeton.

An official statement, given out and signed by the three physicians, gave heart trouble, superinduced by stomach and kidney ailments of long standing, as the cause of death.

While Mr. Cleveland had been in poor health for the last two years, and had lost 100 pounds in weight, his death came unexpectedly. Some three weeks ago, he was brought home from Lakewood, where his condition for a time was such that the hotel at which he was staying was kept open after its regular season because he was too ill to be moved. But when Mr. Cleveland was brought back to Princeton he showed signs of improvement, and actually gained five pounds in weight.

CALLED TO BEDSIDE.

Although confined to his room continuously after his return to Princeton, it was not until yesterday that Mr. Cleveland's condition aroused uneasiness on the part of Mrs. Cleveland. Undoubtedly affected by the heat, Mr. Cleveland showed signs of failure, and Mrs. Cleveland telephoned to Dr. Bryant, who came over from New York on the train arriving here at 4:24 p.m. Dr. Lockwood followed Dr. Bryant from New York, and when they reached here Dr. Carnochan, who had been Mr. Cleveland's local physician since the former President came to Princeton, was also called in.

During the evening Mr. Cleveland seemed to rally, and Mrs. Cleveland, who always has been optimistic about her husband's health, felt assured that it was merely another of the many attacks Mr. Cleveland had suffered, and she informed those who inquired that Mr. Cleveland's condition was not serious.

Mr. Cleveland became worse during the night, and Mrs. Cleveland was called to the bedside of her husband. The distinguished patient sank into unconsciousness, from which he recovered at times, only to suffer a relapse. This continued throughout the night, and early morning.

DEATH WAS PEACEFUL.

The last time he became unconscious was about two hours before he died. Death was peaceful.

Just before he died, Mr. Cleveland sought to say something, but his words were inaudible.

The text of the official statement given out a short time after Mr. Cleveland's death, was as follows:

"Mr. Cleveland for many years had suffered from repeated attacks of gastric intestinal origin. He also had a long standing organic disease of the heart and kidneys. Heart failure, complicated with pulmonary thrombosis and oedema, were the immediate causes of his death."

Some two or three hours later Dr. Bryant, in answer to a question, said that "the heart failure which occasioned death was induced within twenty-four hours of the end and death was finally due to that," thus corroborating the unofficial information that Mr. Cleveland began to grow worse yesterday afternoon.

The news of Mr. Cleveland's death came as a sudden shock to the people of Princeton, as it did to the people of the rest of the world. Everybody in Princeton knew that he was sick and was interested in him, but none seemed to think the end was so near.

FLAGS ARE LOWERED.

As the news spread about the university, flags were placed at half staff and everybody was disposed to stop and talk and express regrets and extol Mr. Cleveland's virtues.

Many intimate friends of the family and many others not so close called at the Cleveland home. Few were able to see Mrs. Cleveland, and all of them left their cards. The visitors, newspaper men, photographers and others became so numerous that the police authorities placed a policeman on guard at the Cleveland home, and no one but intimate friends and those in charge of the funeral arrangements were permitted to approach the house.

The Cleveland residence stands in a beautiful spot at Bayard Lane and Hodges avenue, on the northwestern outskirts of Princeton. The house, a comfortable looking two and a half story structure, of colonial architecture, is well back from the two thoroughfares. It is painted white and is almost hidden by stately pine trees. Here it was Mr. Cleveland's wont to roam and enjoy the life of retirement.

CONDOLENCES.

It was not until late in the day that messages of condolence began to come in from all parts of the world to Mrs. Cleveland. One of the first was from President Roosevelt, who will attend the funeral, which will be held on Friday afternoon, and which, in deference to Mrs. Cleveland's wishes will be as quiet as possible.

Princeton Cemetery in the family plot where lies the remains of Ruth, the eldest of the Cleveland children, whose death was a sad blow to her father.

Mrs. Cleveland denied herself to all but a few callers. Prof. Andrew F. West, Prof. John Hibben of Princeton University, and Bayard Stockton, a Princeton lawyer and a member of the famous Stockton family, were at the house all day and were in charge of all arrangements.

Among those who came here today to extend personally their sympathy was Cleveland F. Bacon of New York, a nephew of Mr. Cleveland. Mr. Bacon is the son of Mr. Cleveland's sister, Mrs. M. B. Bacon of Toledo, O. He came here in response to a telegram and is assisting Mrs. Cleveland in the funeral arrangements.

Others who came to Princeton were Paul Morton, president of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, of which Mr. Cleveland was a trustee, and Richard Watson Gilder of New York. Mr. Morton returned to New York in less than an hour after his arrival. He came to Princeton for the sole purpose of extending his sympathy to Mrs. Cleveland and to tender his services.

CHILDREN ABSENT.

Another caller was Col. Frederick Gilkyson, assistant adjutant-general of the National Guard of New Jersey, who came as the personal representative of Gov. Fort. Col. Gilkyson did not see Mrs. Cleveland, but through Prof. Hibben extended Gov. Fort's condolences and also extended on behalf of the Governor the services of all or any part of the National Guard of the State as an escort for the funeral. The tender was declined because of Mrs. Cleveland's preference for a quiet funeral.

So unexpectedly did Mr. Cleveland's death occur that not one of his four children was at home. The children are at the Cleveland summer home at Tamworth, N. H., under the care of Mrs. Perrine, Mrs. Cleveland's mother. Word was sent to them of their father's death, and they will start at once for Princeton. The children are: Esther, aged 14; Marion, aged 12; Richard, aged 10, and Francis Grover, aged 5.

Ever since Mr. Cleveland's arrival in Princeton, eleven years ago, he has been a conspicuous figure in local life. Although his only official connection with Princeton University were his lectures, known as the Stafford Little Lectureship on Public Affairs, and his membership on the board of trustees, he was regarded as a strong friend of the institution. As a member of the board of trustees, his counsel and astuteness were invaluable. The last trustees' meeting which he attended was October 17. He walked from a carriage to the trustees' room leaning on a heavy cane. This was an important meeting of the board and Mr. Cleveland is said to have taken an important part in the discussion concerning certain proposed changes in the university social system.

POPULAR AT COLLEGE.

Mr. Cleveland was heartily interested in the welfare of the university, and a story is told that he practically induced Andrew Carnegie to present Carnegie Lake to Princeton.

Grover Cleveland was well liked among students and faculty. His last public appearance in the university was while delivering a public lecture about two years ago. On the last Friday of the college year it has been the custom of the freshman class, on becoming sophomores, to serenade him at this home.

On June 5, of this year, the "freshman parade" was held, but owing to the former President's illness, "the parade" did not serenade the Cleveland home.

Last year, on this occasion, Mr. Cleveland stood on the veranda of his home and spoke for a few minutes to the assembled collegians.

Princeton University is closed now. Except for a half dozen students, who are doing special work, there are none but the professors here who are connected with the university.

MRS. CLEVELAND OVERCOME.

Telegrams of condolence came in by hundreds from all parts of the United States and other countries during the day, and they continued to pour into the telegraph office here far into the night. Besides President Roosevelt's telegram, messages of condolence came from government officials, Governors, legislators, prominent educators and citizens in various walks of life.

Few of them, however, were read by Mrs. Cleveland, who decided not to attempt to learn of their contents until she had recovered from the shock caused by her husband's death.

Mr. Cleveland's selection of Princeton as a place of residence after leaving the White House was due to the visit of ex-President and Mrs. Cleveland to Princeton in October, 1896, on the occasion of the Seisqui-Centennial of Princeton. The Clevelands were so graciously received and were so impressed with the beauty of the town and its surroundings, that they at once decided to make Princeton their future home. Until Mr. Cleveland's health began to fail him, two years ago, he continued to be a very busy man. His diversions in Princeton were daily carriage rides and an occasional fishing or gunning trip.

Flour Joins Other Necessities of Life in Skyrocket Course at Chicago.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Flour now has joined other commodities in its skyrocket course. With ice up to 40 cents a hundred pounds and meats and vegetables still climbing beyond the reach of the average householder, flour has jumped from $5 to $6.25 a barrel. The increase may be greater within a week and grocers today looked for an advance to $6.75 and possibly higher.

This advance is attributed indirectly to high prices maintained by meats. This has caused an increased demand for flour.

Prices of potatoes today continued high, and new tomatoes brought 75 cents a crate. Eggs, too, advanced, while some new vegetables were almost beyond reach. Corn, on the cob, for instance, sold at 20 cents an ear in many of the restaurants.

RAILROADS THROW OFF UNION YOKE.

Illinois Central, St. Paul and Burlington Refuse Contracts With the Freight Handlers, Who Fear Loss of Jobs, Drop Increase Demand.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Evidence that the railroads are preparing for a gigantic struggle with the labor unions is given by the refusal of the Illinois Central, the St. Paul and the Burlington roads to renew their contracts with the freight handlers. The union withdrew its demand for increased wages and would have accepted another year's contract at the present wages, but the roads refuse.

Six thousand freight handlers in this city are preparing for a general strike next week. Negotiations between the railroads and the union committees have practically been terminated and the men have called a mass meeting for Monday to discuss the situation. A referendum vote on the question of an immediate strike will be taken at all the freight houses Tuesday.

The railroads have refused to renew working agreements with the freight handlers, although they have offered to allow present conditions to obtain from month to month. Officers of the union profess to see in this move an attempt to reduce wages and they declare they would rather fight it out now than wait until next winter when the cut might be put into effect and they would be forced to accept it.

In the negotiations with the union committees the management of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road made no attempt to conceal the fact that a wage reduction was contemplated by the roads unless there was an improvement in business soon. The Burlington road was the only one in the city which offered to renew the working agreement with its men for a year, but when the committee accepted the proposition and visited the management today to sign the contract not to make a new contract for more than a month.

A meeting of the freight handlers' council was held tonight and it was decided that no temporary contracts should be accepted on any of the roads and that a strike would be ordered unless the roads made contracts for one year as they have done in the past.

On a number of the railroads entering the city the working agreements have already expired. The last of them will run out June 30, and John J. Flynn, secretary of the Freight Handlers' International Union, declared tonight that a strike would probably be called before July 4.

Conditions similar to those in Chicago prevail in Milwaukee, St. Paul and Minneapolis where the freight handlers are organized and where the local freight agents have refused to make new contracts.

Sickening Horrors of Cossack Massacre in Teheran Are Suppressed.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TEHERAN, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Twenty men have been arrested since yesterday, and Melek El Motakellemin, a preacher and Djaugir Khan, the editor of a paper, were hanged this morning in the Shah's camp, and many others severely flogged.

Said Abdullah, president of the Parliament, was insulted, spat upon, and beaten by the populace yesterday while he was conducting to the Daghshai about thirty prisoners, among whom were Taghi Zadeh, a deputy who had taken refuge in the British legation.

The Cossacks stationed in front of the legation do not know whether to protect or forbid any persons trying to enter.

The Shah has assured the foreign ministers that he has no intention of canceling the constitution. This morning he sent for the priests and several influential people, and told them to take steps for a new election for House and Senate.

There are many versions concerning the men who yesterday threw a bomb into the Shah's camp, killing six soldiers. The perpetrator was arrested and confessed.

The Shah sent Cossacks and shelled the house. Two arrests were made and the house pillaged.

If this continues, and for every arrest a house is bombarded, there is danger for every one, both natives and foreigners.

RENEWED HOSTILITIES.

Heavy rifle firing recommenced at 4 o'clock this afternoon, after a quiet night and morning, but there was very little opposition on the part of the people to the troops.

The house of Zehor-Ed-Dowla, the present Governor of Recht, was looted. His son was arrested yesterday and taken before the Shah. Many other houses were plundered by citizens, who joined the troops in this work, including one in the European quarter. The Cossack brigade, according to eyewitnesses, even went so far in the fighting as to fire upon the wounded.

The situation is most critical, and hostilities will continue until one side or the other is overwhelmingly defeated.

No reliable estimate of the casualties in the desperate combat of Tuesday or the street fighting of today can be obtained, but it is certain that both sides lost heavily. Blame for the first clash at arms seemed fixed on the Anjumans or political clubs, but it needed little to start a general fight.

When the soldiers entered Teheran Tuesday, they began looting and robbing the people in the streets, and completely sacked the Parliament building. Many houses in the vicinity were pillaged.

The buildings of Parliament were demolished by the bombardment of yesterday. Corpses of men and bodies of horses cover the main square of Teheran. It is impossible to give the exact number of casualties, but the Cossacks alone lost seventy men killed.

The fate of the refugees, women and children, who sought safety in flight to the country when the riots began yesterday, can better be imagined than described, as they were pursued by drunken cavalrymen. The number and fearful death of these unfortunates will always be a matter of speculation.

SUPPRESSING HORRORS.

Efforts are being made by both sides to suppress the sickening horrors always attending a massacre by Cossacks, as both sides hope for outside help and desire to minimize the hideous crimes against women and children as much as possible in order to appear before the outside world with clean hands.

Today and tonight dogs fed on the corpses of humans and horses throughout the city, entirely unmolested by either force of combatants.

The palace of Prince Zill-Es-Sultan, an uncle of the Shah, and the buildings adjacent to it have been pillaged by the soldiery. According to news from the provinces Zill-Es-Sultan, who is friendly to Great Britain, has taken up the leadership of the movement in the south.

The night passed quietly, but the outbreak of firing today leads to the belief that there may be further collisions. The government has declared a state of siege. The bazaars throughout the country have been closed.

of ex-President Cleveland by all branches of the government.

Immediately upon the receipt today of the President's proclamation formally announcing Mr. Cleveland's death, steps were taken to carry out its provisions.

All officials of the diplomatic and consular service will be notified of the ex-President's death and will be directed to fly the American flags over their respective offices at half-staff for a period of thirty days.

Today all the army posts and stations, all commanders-in-chief of fleets in the navy, captains of detached ships and navy yards and naval stations were ordered to fly the national colors at half-staff for the same period of time.

In the army and the navy today's orders will be followed by more formal orders toward directing what shall be done on the day of the funeral, prescribing the number of guns to be fired, etc.

The flags on the executive departments were today placed at half-staff, as were also the national emblems on the buildings occupied by the District government.

In Washington, where many of those who are now leading officials of the government came into office during his administration and where thousands of residents met him at social functions at the White House, the news of President Cleveland's death caused a profound sensation.

The White House and many officials received their first news through the Associated Press. Many tributes were paid to the memory of the late President by those who had succeeded to the Cabinet counsels of his régime. Among them were Secretary Cortelyou, who as confidential stenographer to the President during the closing days of the last Cleveland administration, had an intimate association with Mr. Cleveland.

Admiral Dewey said:

"In the death of ex-President Cleveland the country has lost a citizen whose wisdom, courage and patriotism were of the highest order. The whole country and its interests were the subject of his unremitting industry and best efforts, and he ignored any effect which a strict performance of duty might have upon his political fortunes. "When, during his second administration, financial disaster was impending, he met the situation with decision and resource, in a manner for which history will give full credit. He believed in the usefulness of an efficient navy and deemed of great importance the character and qualities of naval commanders in whose hands might at any time be placed questions whose decision would involve peace or war."

ISSUES PROCLAMATION TO PAY HONORS TO CLEVELAND.

Abandons His Intention to See the Harvard-Yale Boat Race and Wires Condolences to Widow—Is Shocked at the News of Former Chief Executive's Death.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

OYSTER BAY, June 24.—President Roosevelt issued a proclamation today directing that the flags over the White House and the departmental buildings be placed at half-mast in honor of the memory of Mr. Cleveland. He also ordered that suitable naval and military honors be rendered on the day of the funeral.

The President's proclamation follows:

By the President of the United States, a proclamation.

"THE WHITE HOUSE.

"June 24, 1908.

"To the people of the United States: Grover Cleveland, President of the United States from 1885 to 1889 and again from 1893 to 1897, died at 8:40 o'clock this morning at his home in Princeton, N. J. In his death, the nation has been deprived of one of its greatest citizens. By profession a lawyer, his chief services to his country were rendered during a long, varied and honorable career in public life. As Mayor of his city, as Governor of his State, and twice as President, he showed signal power as an administrator, coupled with entire devotion to the country's good and a courage that quailed before no hostility when once he was convinced where his duty lay. Since his retirement from the Presidency he has continued well and faithfully to serve his countrymen by the simplicity, dignity and uprightness of his private life.

"In testimony of the respect in which his memory is held by the government and the people of the United States, I do hereby direct that the flags on the White House and the several departmental buildings be displayed at half-staff for a period of thirty days and that suitable military and naval honors under the orders of the Secretaries of War and the Navy be rendered on the day of the funeral.

"Done this 24th day of June in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine-hundred and eight, and of the independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and thirty-second.

[Signed] "THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

"By the President:

"Alvey A. Adee, acting Secretary of State."

President Roosevelt will not attend the Yale-Harvard boat races at New London tomorrow owing to the death of former President Grover Cleveland. He will go to Princeton Friday to attend the funeral.

President Roosevelt sent a message of condolence to Mrs. Cleveland and expressed his intention of attending the funeral if it takes place on any other day than Saturday, when he has an important conference.

President Roosevelt's message follows:

"OYSTER BAY,

"June 24, 1908.

"Mrs. Grover Cleveland, Princeton, N. J.: Your telegram shocked me greatly. Mrs. Roosevelt joins in very deep and sincere sympathy. I have, of course, abandoned my intention of starting today for the New London boat races, so that if the funeral is either Thursday or Friday, I can attend. I can also attend if it is Sunday, but if it is Saturday a number of men are coming here from various parts of the country on a business engagement which I cannot well break. Will you direct some one to wire me when the funeral is to be held, and where?

[Signed] "THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

HISTORY OF HIS LAST ILLNESS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, June 24.—Mr. Cleveland was 71 years old March 18, last.

During the past winter, Mr. Cleveland kept close to his home in Princeton until the approach of his birthday, when he went to Lakewood with his family. He was a trustee of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of this city, and up to the time of his going to Lakewood had attended to correspondence in connection with his duties for that society. After he went to Lakewood, however, he discontinued that work, and it soon developed that Mr. Cleveland was suffering from an attack of digestive trouble, which he had experienced many times before.

Mr. Cleveland was attended by Dr. Joseph D. Bryant of this city and Dr. George R. Lockwood, a specialist in lung diseases, was called into consultation. Dr. Bryant made frequent visits to the distinguished patient at Lakewood. Mr. Cleveland occupied a suite of rooms in the second floor of the Lakewood Hotel, and was constantly attended by Dr. Gaudenier, the physician attached to the house, in addition to the visits of Dr. Bryant.

The fact that Mr. Cleveland remained at the hotel after it had been long closed to other guests, and that for many weeks attempts were made to take the former President to his home in Princeton, only a short distance away, early made it evident that Mr. Cleveland's condition was regarded as serious.

May 1, a report became current, which was said to have come from one of the officers of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, that Mr. Cleveland was suffering from cancer of the stomach. This was promptly denied by Mr. Parker, the secretary of the trustees of the society, who afterward acted for Mrs. Cleveland in issuing statements of the condition of the former President. Mr. Parker said that Mr. Cleveland was suffering from one of his periodical attacks of stomach trouble—that was all.

Mr. Cleveland remained at Lakewood for several weeks thereafter, and constant reports of improvement in his condition were issued from the hotel. About a month ago, he had sufficiently recovered to be taken to his home in Princeton, making the journey in an automobile.

Yesterday, it was reported again that Dr. Bryant had been called to Mr. Cleveland's home in Princeton. Inquiries made as to the reason of the visit brought reassuring answers, and it was not publicly known until the announcement of his death today that Mr. Cleveland's illness had again assumed a critical phase. The news of his death, therefore, came with great unexpectedness to the public, and it is believed, also, to many of the friends and admirers of the ex-President.

The surviving Cabinet officers of ex-President Cleveland are: Secretary of State, Richard Olney; Secretary of the Treasury, John G. Carlisle, and Charles S. Fairbanks; Secretary of the Interior, D. R. Francis, Hoke Smith and William F. Vilas; Attorney-General, Judson Harmon; Postmaster-General, Don M. Dickinson.

CRISIS PAST.

SHERMAN NOW OUT OF DANGER.

NO NECESSITY FOR AN IMMEDIATE OPERATION.

Physicians Recommend, However, That Vice-Presidential Nominee Submit Himself to One Before Fall Campaign Begins in Order to Avoid Another Attack.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CLEVELAND, June 24.—Congressman James S. Sherman of Utica, N. Y., Republican Vice-Presidential candidate, who was taken ill here last Sunday with a passage of gallstones, while on his way home from the Chicago convention, rested most comfortably today.

Attending physicians are of the opinion that the necessity for an immediate operation has been passed.

It is not expected Mr. Sherman will be able to leave the hospital before next Sunday.

Mrs. Sherman, who arose from a sick bed at her home in Utica, N. Y., yesterday to come here, was also much improved today. She is occupying a room near her husband at Lakeside Hospital.

Drs. Carter and Allen and Sloan conferred with Mrs. Sherman today as to the advisability of performing an operation. Neither the physicians nor Mr. Sherman were of the opinion that there was any apparent necessity for an immediate operation.

The physicians expressed the belief, however, that Mr. Sherman should undergo an operation as soon as he was fully recovered, and before the fall campaign begins, in order to avoid another attack. The Vice-Presidential candidate agreed that this might be advisable.

OFF FOR BOAT RACE.

OYSTER BAY, June 24.—Mrs. Roosevelt, Ethel, Archie, Quentin and Kermit and a party of relatives and friends left this afternoon on the President's yacht Mayflower for New London, where they will transfer to the yacht Sylph to view the Yale-Harvard boat races tomorrow. After the races they will return to Oyster Bay on the Mayflower, arriving Thursday night.

The foreign residents of Amoy, China, have appointed a committee to cooperate in the entertainment of the American battleship fleet, and a programme subject to alteration has been drafted.

TO HASTEN FRUIT SHIPMENT.

Espee Officials and Growers Tour Central California and Plan to Facilitate Marketing of Crops.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

STOCKTON, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A special train over the Southern Pacific, carrying all of the most prominent western officials of the road as well as the managers of refrigerator companies and prominent fruit men of Central California, arrived here today on a tour of the San Joaquin and Sacramento Valleys to investigate the needs of the fruit shippers with a view of facilitating marketing of the fruit crop this season.

The consolidation of shipments at two central points, Stockton and Sacramento, where the trains will be made up is being considered and it is believed fruit trains can be landed in Philadelphia and New York in seven and eight days this year under the proposed system.

After a short stop here the party with J. D. Fish, local agent of the Southern Pacific, as a guide went to Lodi over the Central California Traction Company inter-urban line. At Lodi, the special train was again boarded and the trip to the Sacramento Valley made. The tour is expected to result in great good to shippers.

BOY TELLS OF FATAL FIGHT.

Truant Relates Story of Arrest by Officer Which Led to Death of His Father in Struggle.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN JOSE, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Ivancovich boy, over whose custody the fatal quarrel between John Ivancovich and Frank R. Shafter, which resulted in the former's death, arose, was on the stand today in Justice Glendenning's court in Santa Clara, where the preliminary examination of Shafter was continued.

The boy had been reported for truancy. He testified that he had been on the street when he saw Shafter coming and ran into the yard. Shafter got out of his buggy, commanded him to come with him, and seized him by the coat collar.

Shafter, after a struggle, in which the boy knocked off the officer's hat and spectacles, succeeded in placing the boy in the buggy. Young Ivancovich then called to his father to help him. His father pulled both the boy and Shafter out of the rig.

FRUIT CROP IS GREAT.

Reports from All Sections of California Show Excellent Record Except in Prunes.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Recent returns made to the California State Board of Trade concerning the fruit crop of the State more than confirm the early reports, which were very promising from almost every section of the State.

The crops of deciduous fruits are very fine in nearly every section, and the quality sent to market is good; prunes only excepted.

The shipments to eastern markets thus far are more than double in quantity than those of last year. Over 800 cars have been shipped East up to date, as against 360 carloads at the same time last year.

The shipments include cherries, apricots, pears, peaches and plums; the latter fruit constituting the bulk of the shipments.

As the season in California is some weeks in advance of the Eastern States, California fruits have a practical monopoly and command good prices.

TREADWELL GETS DELAY.

BANKER TO BE ARRAIGNED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—James Treadwell, one of the directors of the defunct California Safe Deposit and Trust Company, appeared before Judge Conley, sitting in place of Judge Carroll Cook, today, to be arraigned on several indictments brought by the present grand jury for alleged illegal transactions in connection with the affairs of the bank.

Judge Conley, upon request of Treadwell's attorneys, postponed the arraignment to Monday morning, next.

The cases against Treadwell, and J. Dalzell Brown and Walter J. Bartnett, also officers of the bank, which are on joint indictment, also were postponed to Monday next to be set for trial.

These charges all grow out of the alleged hypothecation of securities held in trust by the bank during the days of the financial panic of November, 1907, when a desperate effort was being made to save the company from going to the wall.

THREE BANKS INSOLVENT.

SALOON TAKES THEIR PLACES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] State Bank Examiner Hofer returned from Rawhide on Tuesday after making his examination of the First Bank of Rawhide and the Merchants' and Miners' Bank at that place. He also examined the bank of Wonder and declares all three of the institutions are insolvent.

He says the Merchants' and Miners' Bank may be able to settle its claims if the creditors do not press them and a little time is given.

The Northern saloon, run by Tex Rickard, at Rawhide, has practically assumed all banking operations, and tonight Rickard came to Reno with several thousand dollars' worth of checks which he had cashed. Rickard has arranged to serve as a clearing-house for the Rawhide merchants and will do a banking business over his bar.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Boy Finds Man's Body in Well.

TRACY, June 24.—The body of a man has been found in a thirty-foot well in the hills eight miles from this place. The discovery was made by a son of Fritz Genes. The body is still in the hole and the Coroner has been notified. There is no clew to the identity of the man, but the body is supposed to be that of a tramp. A hat, tin bucket and small packages of food were found near the well curb.

Archeologist Off for Peru.

BERKELEY, June 24.—Dr. Samuel A. Barrett of the California University, who has been connected with the Department of Anthropolgy for two years and has conducted a series of investigations of the languages and habits of the Indians of this State, has just left for the interior of Ecuador and Peru, where he will take part in archeological explorations in those countries. He will be one of the members of the George G. Hey expedition, which was fitted out three years ago by a New York millionaire.

LIFE IN DANGER.

OPERATE ON CROCKER.

Youngest Son of Late Millionaire Has Cancer.

Heroic Effort Made to Prolong His Life.

Is Heir to One-fourth of Great Fortune.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] George Crocker, youngest son of the late Charles Crocker of San Francisco, and heir to one-fourth of the Crocker estate of $30,000,000, submitted to the surgeon's knife today for the second time in the hope of prolonging his life.

The operation, which is said to have been for cancer of the stomach, took place at Mr. Crocker's summer home at Ramsey, N. J. Every effort was made to keep it secret.

Dr. William T. Bull of this city was the surgeon in charge. He was still with Mr. Crocker tonight. It was due to the necessity for an immediate operation upon Mr. Crocker that Dr. Bull found it impossible to obey the summons to go to Cleveland to attend James S. Sherman, the Republican Vice-Presidential nominee.

Dr. Bull was at the Crocker home at Ramsey on Tuesday night when the telegram urging his attendance at Cleveland was received at his New York home. When Mrs. Bull found she could not telephone her husband she sent a telegram, but this was not delivered until today. Dr. Bull realized it would be impossible to leave Mr. Crocker. The preparations for the operation were even then taking place.

William H. Crocker, a brother of the patient and president of the Crocker National Bank of San Francisco, is said to be in the Ramsey summer home, as is his sister, Mrs. C. T. Alexander of New York.

The operation took place at 2 o'clock p.m. While every detail was scrupulously guarded, it is said to have involved both the removal of a cancerous growth from the walls of the stomach and a part of the stomach itself—a task requiring the most delicate skill.

Mr. Crocker is reported to have recovered rapidly from the ether and was resting quietly tonight. It will be several days before the ultimate success of the effort to save his life will be known.

BARTNETT JURY HOTEL BILL.

OVER FIFTEEN HUNDRED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—The Bartnett jury's bill at the St. Francis Hotel was filed today with Judge Conley, and will be passed upon by Judge Lawlor.

The total amount of the bill is $1557. The largest item is for board and lodging from June 3 to June 22, $1188. The next largest item is for bar and mineral waters, $217.

Judge Conley has already approved a bill for $165 for amusements, which include baseball, theaters and other diversions.

San Francisco Hotels

New Street Car Lines Operated in San Francisco

Another Direct Connection Between the Ferry Station and the

Fairmont Hotel

The operation of the Sacramento Street cable car line adds another to the conveniences of the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco. Despite the fact that the Hotel automobiles and carriages meet all trains and steamers, many people prefer to come up on the car.

The new line gives direct service from the Ferry to the Hotel. It is rapid, taking less than eight minutes from the Ferry to the Hotel, and the new big green cars furnish ample accommodations. Strangers need only ask the Inspectors for the Sacramento Street or Fairmont Hotel line and they will be properly directed. The Hotel is also served by direct service from Market Street on the California Street line, and by the cross-town Powell Street line which transfers from all parts of the city.

With the present service it is the most conveniently as well as the most superbly located hotel in the New San Francisco.

The present Management is the identical one which made the old Palace Hotel famous, which is in itself a guarantee of superiority of cuisine and service.

LIFE WORK.

CLEVELAND ORIGINAL "BIG STICK" WIELDER.

Dead Ex-President Will Be Known in History as Statesman Who Compelled Recognition of Monroe Doctrine as More Than Sentiment.

GROVER CLEVELAND will be remembered best as the President who established the Monroe doctrine on such a sound basis, internationally considered, that it is now recognized as a fixed principle by foreign powers.

Previous to 1895 the Monroe doctrine was looked upon as a fetish, an American piece of sentimentality that might be respected if the other nation had no valuable rights at stake. It fell to Cleveland's lot to flourish the "big stick" and to notify other powers that Uncle Sam intended to stand by the principle laid down by President Monroe at all times, even if it meant war.

Moreover, the Cleveland coup was directed at Great Britain, and came on the heels of a virtual snub from the Premier of that nation, who hinted that the English government cared not a whit whether President Monroe had said certain things about land seizure in the western hemisphere or not.

In his short but vigorous bout with the British lion President Cleveland was given noteworthy aid by his Secretary of State, Richard Olney. Few people are aware that Mr. Olney wrote more than one paragraph of the famous message which his Chief sent to Congress. Some people declared that Olney wrote it all, but doubtless this is an error.

HOW THE TROUBLE AROSE.

Great Britain and Venezuela had been disputing for fifty years over the boundary line between British Guiana and the South American republic. President Cleveland suggested to the British government that the argument be adjusted by arbitration.

Venezuela accepted this proffer, but Great Britain refused, making it clear that not only was the interference of the United States resented, but that the integrity of the Monroe doctrine itself was questioned. Lord Salisbury's reply to this effect was received in Washington in December, 1895, after the President's annual message had been sent to Congress. President Cleveland startled the nation by sending a special message to Congress upon December 17, in which he formally notified the world that the United States would support the Monroe doctrine at all costs. His words are well worth repeating:

"The doctrine upon which we stand is strong and sound, because its enforcement is important to our peace and safety as a nation, and is essential to the integrity of our free institutions and the tranquil maintenance of our free form of government. It was intended to apply to every stage of our national life, and cannot become obsolete while our republic endures.

"Assuming that the attitude of Venezuela will remain unchanged, the dispute has reached such a stage as to make it incumbent upon the United States to take measures to determine with sufficient certainty for its justification what is the true divisional line between the republic of Venezuela and British Guiana. The inquiry to that end should, of course, be conducted carefully and judicially, and due weight should be given to all available evidence, records and facts in support of the claims of both parties.

TAKES FIRM ATTITUDE.

"In making these recommendations I am fully alive to the responsibilities incurred, and keenly realize all the consequences that may follow. But there is no calamity which a great nation can invite that equals that which follows a supine submission to wrong and injustice and the consequent loss of national self-respect and honor, beneath which are shielded and defended a people's safety and greatness."

Against this Lord Salisbury did not show an uncompromising attitude. He receded from his advanced position, a treaty was negotiated submitting the boundary to arbitration, and, most important of all, Lord Salisbury agreed to recognize the Monroe doctrine fully. As a direct result of the Venezuela affair a general arbitration treaty was arranged between the United States and Great Britain, through Secretary of State Olney and the British Ambassador, Sir Julian Pauncefote. This important document, however, did not become effective, because of rejection by the Senate in February, 1897, one month before Grover Cleveland ceased to be the President of the United States for the last time.

All this happened during Mr. Cleveland's last term as Chief Magistrate of the nation. He was first chosen President in the autumn of 1884, and was inaugurated March 4, 1885. He was the twenty-second occupant of the executive mansion, and, again, when elevated to the same position the second time, was the twenty-fourth. Benjamin Harrison having served during the interim. President Cleveland's second term began on March 4, 1893.

CALLS FOR A NEW NAVY.

The first Cleveland régime was marked by his stand for a new navy. Doubtless, to Mr. Cleveland more than to any one else belongs the credit for giving the United States a navy that compares well with any other afloat. In his first annual message in December, 1885, President Cleveland dwelt with special emphasis on the need of new ships and coast defenses. He said the nation was then practically at the mercy of any foreign foe. Congress was stirred to act by public sentiment as well as the President's hint, and made the required appropriations. William C. Whitney, Secretary of the Navy, expedited the new programme with characteristic vigor.

In his first administration Mr. Cleveland also gave serious attention to civil service reform. There had been considerable agitation about the evil effects of political "pull" and influence upon the government service and the President made an investigation. He found that many of the stories were true and that he could strengthen the cause of the reform through executive initiative.

Mr. Cleveland gave a good deal of time to consideration of the suggestions of the civil service reform commission and came out in favor of the extension of civil service into various branches of the government not embraced in the original classification. He found at the opening of his administration that civil service included only 13,000 employés. He declared that as an effective weapon against the evils complained of the rule should be thoroughly applied. Gradually, therefore, the reform was extended, and at the end of his first term 27,000 government positions were under civil service regulation.

Later the work was pushed even further. It was Cleveland's personal influence that advanced the movement to a point where a backward step could not be taken safely.

SECOND TERM EVENTFUL.

President Cleveland's second term constituted four of the most eventful years in the nation's history since the Civil War, with its panic of 1893, its repeal of the Sherman silver law, its Wilson bill, its Venezuelan and Hawaiian episodes, its general condition of turmoil and unrest. Mr. Cleveland's second term began with the Democratic party a well-organized body, in the zenith of its power and with Mr. Cleveland as its one greatest figure and champion. At the end of his second term disorganized Democracy was torn to shreds and without a leader.

The storms of this remarkable second session began before Mr. Cleveland took his seat in the White House. Before he had taken the oath of office Mr. Cleveland had amazed both Democrats and Republicans by announcing his intention of appointing as his Secretary of State a man who was in no way identified with the Democratic party and who was sometimes called a Republican, sometimes a "mugwump"—Walter Q. Gresham. In ignoring the claims of able Democrats to be premier of the administration Mr. Cleveland antagonized thousands of members of his party.

STORM BREAKS EARLY.

The sensation caused by the appointment of Mr. Gresham, however, was but a suggestion of the rough seas ahead of the administration, for the panic of 1893, began to make itself felt within a few weeks of President Cleveland's second inauguration. The time was peculiarly favorable for widespread depression.

If there was anything which had carried Mr. Cleveland into power the second time it was the popular revolt against the era of high prices inaugurated by the enactment of the McKinley law and the very favored position given to the trusts and combinations by the schedule of that law. When Mr. Cleveland was elected manufacturers and business men became anxious to know what changes were to be made in the tariff, so that they might guide themselves accordingly. They were uneasy, timid; they hesitated to go forward along any set lines. They felt that they should do nothing at all until the tariff had been adjusted by the Democrats.

Critics of Mr. Cleveland, therefore, declared that Congress should have been called in session immediately after March 4, 1893, for the purpose of removing the evils of the extreme protective system and letting the country know what the new conditions of business were to be. Mr. Cleveland was advised to this effect. He, however, declined to convene Congress.

Congress finally was called together August 7, 1893, but the tariff was not the inspiring cause of the gathering. President Cleveland was no believer in the preponderant use of silver as coin and felt that marked relief would follow if the Sherman silver-purchase law were repealed. He therefore asked for the repeal of the law that provided for the monthly purchase of 2,500,000 ounces of silver.

PARTY SPLIT BY FIGHT.

Many students said the prescription did not fit the malady, but President Cleveland persisted—a marked characteristic of his—and eventually saw his pet measure in effect. The price was a split in the Democratic party—a schism in the Senate and House, and a rift in the national organization that resulted in the elevation of Bryan and the memorable free silver fight of 1896.

During all this time Congressman William L. Wilson of West Virginia, who was chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, was investigating the tariff question. In January, 1894, the Wilson bill, lowering tariff duties, went before the House, where it was debated for three weeks and where a clause taxing incomes was injected. In the Senate the bill went to the Finance Committee, where it was hacked and hammered out beyond recognition.

It went to conference, however, and things were going along fairly well when President Cleveland committed one of those acts which never could be explained by his best or closest friends. He wrote a letter which was read in the House, as he evidently intended, virtually accusing Democratic Senators with party perfidy and political dishonor.

The storm that followed is still recalled in Washington. Various Senators swore vengeance and were sharpening their knives in anticipation of further hacking of the administration's tariff measure, when the leaders of the House, aware of what was in prospect, caused the conferees to agree and the bill was consequently passed. A year later the Supreme Court found the income tax feature unconstitutional.

GREAT BOND ISSUES.

But the Wilson law did not provide sufficient revenue, and this, combined with the free silver agitation and the general depression, added to President Cleveland's woes. At this juncture the President was forced to face the question of a bond issue. His ensuing acts provoked bitter criticisms and indeed, this period of his regime was discussed, reviled and defended as much as any of his eight years' tenure.

There was, first, a $50,000,000 bond issue—5 per cent—which netted a little over $58,000,000, and a few months later another similar issue was made. The reserve was below $100,000,000 and the newspapers of the country continually harped on this as indicative of a mistaken financial policy. To recoup, President Cleveland resorted to issues of government securities. In each instance the President accompanied the proposal with a message, generally suggesting fright or hysteria.

The explosion came, however, in February, 1895, when it was stated that the President had entered into a secret negotiation with a syndicate of New York bankers, represented by the President's former law partner, to sell $62,000,000 worth of bonds at the very unusual low price of 104, although the bonds were quoted at a much higher rate at the time of their sale, and soon afterward rose to 118. For this transaction the President was attacked with much vehemence and virulence by men both in his own party and without, and so loud was the chorus that when another issue of $100,000,000 was determined upon it was made through the medium of public bids.

ACTION IS DEFENDED

Nothing could have exceeded the bitterness of the debate which these bond sales provoked. A message from the President stating that the treasury could save $16,000,000 interest by authorizing the issue of 3 per cent. gold bonds was laughed to scorn. The President was not unmindful of the criticism which his action provoked, and he took occasion in his next message to Congress to upsold the transaction.

"The performance of the contract," said he, "not only restored the reserve, but checked for a time the withdrawals of gold, and brought on a period of restored confidence and such peace and quiet in business circles as were of the greatest possible value to every interest that affects our people. I never had the slightest misgiving concerning the wisdom or propriety of this arrangement, and am quite willing to answer for my full share of responsibility for its promotion. I believe it averted a disaster, the imminence of which was, fortunately, not at the time generally understood by our people."

Altogether, the administration issued bonds to the amount of $262,000,000, for which the treasury received $293,000,000. A very large proportion of this amount was disbursed through the usual channels of expenditures to prevent the bankruptcy of the treasury.

DISLIKED BY THE PEOPLE.

All of these things brought President Cleveland into extreme unpopularity. Perhaps no National Executive was more cordially disliked than he along in 1894 and early in 1895. The firm stand he took on the Great Britain and Venezuela imbroglio largely retrieved his hold upon the affections of the people.

The great railroad strike in Chicago in 1894 also served to add to the President's enemies. It incidentally made him new friends, however. Without any flashing of messages or flourish of trumpets, the President one day ordered Federal troops to be sent to the seat of the trouble. This brought a remonstrance from Gov. Altgeld of Illinois, and put that official in the position of not only opposing the President, but of marked friendliness for lawbreakers.

But the turmoil of domestic affairs was almost a side issue compared with the foreign squabbles to which the second Cleveland régime became party. The Hawaiian matter had stood forth prominently when Benjamin Harrison was in office, but President Cleveland seemed to think little of the proposed annexation treaty and hastily had it withdrawn from the Senate. He then commissioned James H. Blount, a former Congressman, as his "paramount commissioner to Hawaii." On receiving the Blount report the President ordered the American troops to quit the islands. This invited a storm of criticism and gave certain newspapers a chance to accuse him of wishing to "haul down the Stars and Stripes."

CHANGES HAWAIIAN POLICY.

Eventually Mr. Cleveland changed his Hawaiian policy and the way was paved for annexation.

There were still further perplexing relations of the United States to foreign powers during the eventful second term. After the troubles in Hawaii there followed the necessity of sending a warship to Samoa to preserve peace under the tripartite agreement with England and Germany; the Chinese-Japanese War, which concluded with the negotiations of peace through the friendly efforts of this government and which was marked by the visitation of mob violence upon American missionaries; the imprisonment of John M. Wallar by the French authorities in Madagascar; the difference with Germany on account of the importation of American pork; the lynching of several Italians by a mob in New Orleans and representations through the Italian Minister; the reference of the Alaskan boundary dispute to arbitration; the cognizance taken of the Armenian outrages committed by citizens of Turkey upon American missionaries and which led to a declaration by Congress; the adjudicating of the dispute between this country and Great Britain over the taking of fur seals, in which England secured both a diplomatic and legal victory, and other minor matters, several of which, however, called for the exercise of wise statesmanship.

The fearful panic that brought on "soup-house" conditions in the nation was ascribed by many to the Cleveland policy. Others would not admit this, and, while the people as a unit appeared to consider Mr. Cleveland's backwardness in settling the tariff controversy partly responsible, it was more latterly the verdict that the panic was due anyhow.

Cleveland by friend and enemy was looked upon as a courageous man, a man of strict principles and of lofty purposes. His weakness at first appeared to be a peculiar seizure of impetuousness that kept the nation on the qui vive. This feeling never quite subsided and was unquestionably Cleveland's bete noire.

AIDED BY MRS. CLEVELAND.

How much of Mr. Cleveland's success was due to Mrs. Cleveland was for years a debatable topic. That she did much to steady him and to hold for him the affection of a large element of the population which otherwise would have been unequivocably inimical has been acknowledged.

Mr. Cleveland had gone to Washington as a bachelor, and during his first year of the Presidency his sister, Miss Rose Elizabeth Cleveland, had presided over the executive mansion. On June 2, 1886, however, he was married to Miss Frances Folsom and the White House was given a new mistress.

world during the present generation. Like every commanding figure he had zealous supporters and earnest opponents, but those who differed from him were as ready as his warmest friends to concede to him the possession of elements of leadership to an extraordinary degree.

"He was deliberate in action, firm in conviction and ever ready to accept responsibility for what he did. Few men have exerted a more positive influence upon those associated with them. We are not far enough from the period in which his work was done to measure accurately his place in history, but the qualities which made him great are a part of the nation's heritage and universal sorrow is felt in his death."

STOPPED CHICAGO STRIKE.

CLEVELAND FOE OF RIOTERS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President Cleveland received criticism from labor unions and others in 1894, when he ordered United States troops to Chicago to quell riots arising in the great strike of employés at the car shops in Pullman. The police force and extra deputies seemed unable to keep order.

President Cleveland was finally appealed to by the authorities and through his orders a regiment of 600 regulars camped on the Lake Front and were later distributed throughout the city where rioting continued. By the assistance of the troops the strikers were finally overawed and the strike came to an end.

EXPECTED DEATH BY WINTER.

RELATIVE TELLS OF ILLNESS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Benjamin F. Folsom, a cousin of Mrs. Cleveland, said today:

"We had known that Mr. Cleveland was in a serious condition but we did not expect his death at this time, although it was thought he could not survive the summer. A few weeks ago he was taken from Lakewood to his home.

"I do not think that any of our family here will go to Princeton to the funeral. I had not seen Mr. Cleveland since he and Mrs. Cleveland came here from their home a year ago last Washington's birthday, and Mr. Cleveland spoke at the Union League Club.

PAUL MORTON'S TRIBUTE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, June 24.—Paul Morton said:

"Grover Cleveland was a most remarkable man—broad in thought, sound in conscience and always safe in action. Simple as a child in his tastes and resolute as a giant in his integrity, he was the highest type of public servant and it is to be regretted we have so few men of this sturdy character in public life.

"He was a patriot rather than a partisan and his moral courage to do what he thought was best for the country, regardless of the party, was the beginning of independent thought throughout the country which is now such a factor in our public affairs."

PUREST-HEARTED PATRIOT.

STETSON'S APPRECIATION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, June 24.—Francis Lynde Stetson, who was associated with former President Grover Cleveland in the practice of law, said today:

"Were I to select one quality which more conspicuously than the many others entitled him to the love and regard of his countrymen, I should say that Grover Cleveland was the purest-hearted patriot I have ever known. In his consideration and decision of public affairs, without exception, he was guided and controlled by what he believed to be the best interests of the country. Neither the wishes of his friends nor even his own personal desires were permitted to determine his decisions. This essential quality was clearly seen by the poet's vision and finally praised by the poet's pen when Mr. Lowell described him as the pilot 'who held his rudder true.'"

Mr. Stetson then pointed out that the room in which he was sitting was once Mr. Cleveland's office.

ON FREE SILVER.

"It was in this room," he said, "that one of the most choice instances in Cleveland's career took place. The day before the big anti-free silver meeting in Cooper Union—I forget the date—a gentleman of great influence, who now lives in this city, came to him to discuss the situation. Both were strongly opposed to the free silver movement, and the talk naturally turned in that direction.

"Mr. Cleveland had an engagement to speak at the meeting, but for some reason could not go. 'Are you going to send a letter?' asked the gentleman.

"'What do you think about it?' asked Mr. Cleveland.

"'I should not,' said the gentleman in reply. 'I regard such a step as needless. Your position is well known. Nothing you can say at this time will put you more definitely upon record, and I think it might cause needless embarrassment to your friends if you were to take any part in the meeting, either by your presence or a letter.'

DUTY BEFORE OFFICE.

"Mr. Cleveland said nothing in reply for a time. Then, taking off his big glasses, he turned around and looked the gentleman straight in the eyes.

"'I am a citizen of the United States,' Mr. Cleveland said to him. 'I am a citizen of the State of New York, and of the city of New York. Naturally, I ought to take the part of of a citizen in the affairs of the city, and especially upon a matter which is of so deep an import. I deem it my duty as a citizen to do so. I regard the expression of an opinion in a matter of so great importance as this of more importance than personal matters. It is said that I ought not to go there, nor to write a letter of any sort upon this matter of supreme importance, because it might embarrass my nomination. I am going to write a letter to be read at that meeting, and the Presidency can go to hell.'

"Mr. Cleveland did write. His letter is history. In outspoken and burning words he stated his position upon the silver movement. He said then, as he has believed since, that 'free coinage of silver was wrong and dangerous.' Nobody has forgotten it."

DEMOCRATS PAY TRIBUTE.

MAY ADJOURN CONVENTION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

DENVER, June 24.—Speaking of the death of former President Cleveland, Roger C. Sullivan, Democratic National Committeeman for Illinois and chairman of the committee which is preparing for the next convention, said today:

"In Mr. Cleveland the nation lost its greatest citizen, the Democratic party one of its truest leaders, and many of us a personal friend."

Gov. John E. Osburn, national committeeman from Wyoming, said:

"A man whose honesty, sincerity of purpose and courage no one can question, Mr. Cleveland's name will go down to history as one of our greatest Presidents."

Col. John I. Martin, sergeant-at-arms of the Democratic National Committee, lost a personal friend of a quarter of a century in Mr. Cleveland, of whom he said:

"When the history of the republic is written and the record of all its great statesmen and great Presidents from Washington down is completed, the pages dealing with the career of Grover Cleveland will show that in many respects he was equal to the best."

There was an intimation today that out of respect to Mr. Cleveland's memory the Democratic convention would be asked to adjourn for a day immediately after the convening.

LOFTY CHARACTER.

COL. WILLIS IS STUNNED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MADISON (Wis.) June 24.—Col. William F. Willis, former United States Senator and member of President Cleveland's Cabinet, when informed of Mr. Cleveland's death, said:

"Notwithstanding his feeble condition was generally known, his recent seeming improvement had dispelled the imminence of apprehension and the news of Mr. Cleveland's death fell as a stunning blow. Its unexpected suddenness derived me of present power to deal with the memories it awakens.

"I dare attempt but small expression of thoughts that arise in me. Passing time has already done much and now will do more to clear away the clouds of contemporary differences and leave his lofty character, his great powers and his eminent service to his country in the undimmed splendor under which history will display them."

LARGE PLACE IN HISTORY.

STEVENSON TELLS OF VIRTUES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BLOOMINGTON (Ill.) June 24.—Former Vice-President Adlai E. Stevenson was greatly shocked when informed by the Associated Press of the death of President Cleveland. Mr. Stevenson said:

"I am deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mr. Cleveland.

"His will be a large place in history.

FAMILY OF FIVE

All Drank Coffee From Infancy.

It is a common thing in this country to see whole families growing up with nervous systems weakened by coffee drinking.

That is because many parents do not realize that coffee contains a drug—caffeine—which causes the trouble.

"There are five children in my family," writes an Iowa mother, "all of whom drank coffee from infancy up to two years ago.

"My husband and I had heart trouble and were advised to quit coffee. We did so, and began to use Postum. We now are doing without medicine and are entirely relieved of heart trouble.

(Caffeine causes heart trouble when continually used as in coffee drinking.)

"Our eleven-year-old boy had a weak digestion from birth, and yet always craved, and was given coffee. When we changed to Postum he liked it, and we gave him all he wanted. He has been restored to health by Postum and still likes it.

"Long live the discoverer of Postum!"

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

CIVIL WAR IN PERSIA.

clares that a civil war accompanied by all its horrors, has begun in Persia, as shown by the fighting in Teheran yesterday. The Shah for the moment, the paper says, has been successful, but the final outcome is doubtful, as the Shah's handful of troops may be defeated when the armed forces of the revolutionists arrive from the north.

The Slovo sees no reason for international intervention in Persia as long as the lives of foreigners are safe and it warns the government of the danger of any dealings whatever with the reactionary circles in Teheran which might alienate the sympathy of the masses of the people and destroy Russian prestige in Persia.

The Bourse Gazette says the firing in Teheran yesterday was the beginning of the end. The Shah has burned his bridges and definitely cast in his lot with the reactionaries. The sword must now decide whether the idea of popular representation is firmly rooted in Persia or not.

The latest advices received at the Foreign Office put a different complexion on the mobbardment of the Persian House of Parliament. The action of the troops was not, it is now stated, to enforce the demand for the surrender of certain revolutionaries, but was the result of two attacks upon the troops, in which bombs and firearms were employed and in which the soldiers lost heavily.

The liberal press at St. Petersburg regards the attack on the Cossacks as the initiation of a pure coup d'etat and it is convinced that it will be followed by the dissolution of the national assembly and by the revocation of the constitution.

Russia has directed her Consul at Urumiah to act in concert with the Consul of Great Britain and mediate with the Turkish authorities to put an end to the Kurdish outrages around that city.

CORPSES COVER MAIN SQUARE OF TEHERAN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BERLIN, June 24.—The Tageblatt publishes a dispatch from Teheran saying that the firing of small arms and artillery was still going on today. The buildings of Parliament were quite demolished by the bombardment of yesterday.

Corpses of men and bodies of horses cover the main square of Teheran. It is impossible to give the exact number of the casualties, but the Cossacks alone lost seventy men killed. The palace of Prince Zill-es-Sultan, an uncle of the Shah, and the buildings adjacent to it have been pillaged by the soldiery.

According to news from the provinces, Zill-es-Sultan, who is friendly to Great Britain, has taken up the leadership of the movement in the south.

The night passed quietly, but the outbreak of firing this morning leads to the belief that there may be further collisions. The government has declared a state of siege. The bazaars throughout the country have been closed.

A special dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger, dated Teheran, says:

"Heavy rifle firing recommenced at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, after a quiet night and morning, but there was very little opposition on the part of the people to the troops. The house of Zehor-ed-Dowle, the present Governor of Recht, was looted. His son was arrested yesterday and taken before the Shah. Many other houses were plundered by the citizens, who joined the troops in this work, including one in the European quarter.

The Cossack brigade, according to eye-witnesses, even went so far in the fighting as to fire upon the wounded.

PERSIA MINISTER UPHOLDS THE SHAH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 24.—It was learned at the Persian legation here that the city of Teheran has been placed in a state of siege by royal edict. Owing to existing conditions, the Persian Minister said, the government has detailed troops to safeguard the inhabitants against further attacks by the political clubs gathered at the Mosque or Zephealar and the Anjouman Azerbaibjian, revolutionary organ.

"The state troops have been attacked with rifles and bombs by the revolutionists," said Gen. Morteza Khan, the Persian Minister, tonight, "and several persons have been killed and wounded. In order to stop the continuation of these troubles and the effusion of blood, the city of Teheran, by royal order, has been declared in a state of siege."

The Minister desired to correct the statement that 20,000 had been killed in political riots in Persia during the past few years, saying the number would not exceed 2000.

BABY PRINCE UNEXPECTED.

Many Dignitaries Unable to Reach Palace in Time to See Son of Spain's Ruler Born.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LA GRANJA (Spain) June 24.—The son who was born to the Queen of Spain, came before he was expected, and as a result many of the personages, including the bishop of Segovia, whose duty it is to be present on the occasion, did not reach the palace in time.

King Alfonso presented the infant formally to the courtiers who had gathered in the throne room this morning. This ceremony occurred in the throne room and meanwhile a salute of twenty-one guns was being fired outside the palace.

King Alfonso drafted the form of a telegram to the chiefs of state, telling them of the event, after which he retired.

At 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon the ceremony of inscribing the birth of the child on the state register took place in the throne room in the presence of the King, members of the royal family, the Cabinet and a large gathering of civil dignitaries and military authorities. The baby was registered under the name of Jaime Alexander Jean.

A nurse has been summoned by telegraph from Santander. In the meantime the Queen is nursing the infant.

PROGRESSIVES IN CONTROL OF STATE CONVENTION.

Remarkable Demonstration Occurs When Senator Is Mentioned and Chairman Unable to Continue Speech—Gov. Cummins Given Ovation When He Appears.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WATERLOO (Iowa) June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The progressives were in undisputed control of the Republican State Convention here today, having a majority of new State Central committeemen and dominating the committees on resolutions and permanent organization.

The feature of the convention and one unprecedented in Iowa was the volume of hisses and groans elicited by W. S. Hart of Waukon, a standpatter, who was temporary chairman, when he referred to the matter of Senator Dolliver's Vice-Presidential candidacy in Chicago.

When reference was first made to Senator Dolliver, there were some groans mingled with the cheers, and when the speaker expressed pleasure in the fact that Dolliver had refused to be dazzled by the glamour of secondary honors, the groans and hisses drowned the air. The demonstration was continued for several minutes and every effort of Mr. Hart to continue his speech was defeated by the decisive cheers of those whom he had offended by his allusion.

In one whole section the sybilliant sounds came through the teeth of scores of delegates. Finally the tenseness of the situation was relieved when the Cedar Rapids band, which occupied a place on the platform struck up "The Star Spangled Banner." But when Mr. Hart attempted to continue, his voice was again deadened by hisses and goans.

Another dramatic feature was the ovation given later to Gov. Cummins, who responded only after repeated insistent calls. Most of the audience rose and for several minutes the men swung their hats and coats and cheered.

The actual work of the convention was short. Two judges of the Supreme Court were nominated. The only candidates presented were Justice S. M. Weaver and Scott M. Ladd, who were named by acclamation.

DELAYS COMMITTEE MEETING.

TAFT WAI . . ON SHERMAN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NE HAVEN, June 24.—Late this afternoon Secretary Taft directed the postponement of the meeting of the subcommittee of the Republican National Committee to select a national chairman from July 1 to 8 on account of the illness of Representative Sherman, the Vice-Presidential candidate.

TO GATHER AT OYSTER BAY.

President's Message to Mrs. Cleveland Discloses Importance of Meeting Saturday.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OYSTER BAY (N. Y.) June 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] All doubt as to the size or importance of the meeting to discuss the Republican national chairmanship, to be held here next Saturday, was dispelled today when President Roosevelt notified Mrs. Grover Cleveland that it would be impossible for him to attend the funeral of her late husband if it was to occur on that date.

Heretofore Secretary Loeb has never admitted that more than Secretary of War Taft and the incoming Secretary, Luke Wright, were expected. Tonight, however, he said that a number of members of the National Committee and other prominent Republicans would be there.

He declared positively that Frank H. Hitchcock is not coming. This is regarded as rather significant, inasmuch as the President had made no secret of the fact that Hitchcock is his choice for chairman.

Mr. Loeb declined to give the names of the guests expected, his excuse being that by doing so he would be spoiling a good story for Saturday.

PLAN CONSERVATIVE PLATFORM

Big Democratic Leaders to Fight Bryan to Last Ditch at the Denver Convention.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Thomas Taggart of Indiana, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, forecasts a hot platform fight at the Denver convention. Today, while in Chicago on his way to Colorado, he said: "The platform will be conservative, and one that every Democrat may be able to subscribe to." The wise ones take this to mean that the big leaders in the party intend to fight the radicals to the last ditch. It is within the power of the chiefs to name a temporary chairman that will sound the keynote speech. The Subcommittee on Arrangements will select this man next Saturday at a meeting in Denver, to attend which Mr. Taggart is speeding to the convention city.

From the managers of Gov. Johnson of Minnesota came a note of war. Theodore Knappen declared before closing up the local headquarters to go to Denver that from one-third to one-half of the delegates instructed for Bryan are not for him personally. The Johnson men insist it will not take much of an explosion in the convention to set the tide against Bryan. The managers of the Minnesotan will not concede that the Nebraskan has the necessary two-thirds vote to nominate on the first ballot.

IOWA DEMOCRATS FOR BRYAN.

FAVOR NATIVE SON FOR VICE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SIOUX CITY (Iowa) June 24.—The Democratic State Convention, which will assemble here tomorrow, will indorse W. J. Bryan, boom Jerry S. Sullivan, of Des Moines, for the nomination of Vice-President, nominate two candidates for judges of the Supreme Court and adopt a platform.

Delegates are arriving in large numbers.

SAILORS TO FACE COURT.

Board of Inquiry Finds Chief Water Tender and Assistant on Tennessee Responsible for Explosion.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 24.—As a result of the bursting of a boiler on the cruiser Tennessee at Santa Barbara, Cal., several weeks ago, with seven fatalities, A. C. Fritz, chief water tender, and A. T. Loundes, water tender, will be tried by general court-martial.

The board of inquiry found them responsible. The board gives no theories as to the cause of the accident.

Although the two men will be court-martialed in connection with the accident, yet the board, in its report, according to the statement given out at the Navy Department, "finds that the accident was in no way due to the fault or neglect on the part of the men."

OBITUARY.

Jacob Eppinger.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Jacob Eppinger, formerly one of the wheat kings of California, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, after an illness of several years' duration. He was 72 years of age and leaves a widow and four children—three sons and a daughter. Mr. Eppinger was the senior partner in the well-known firm of Eppinger & Co. Their failure some years ago came as a sensation, as they controlled large grain and warehouse interests throughout the State. Charges were filed against Eppinger, but the trials resulted in disagreements, and when the records were destroyed in the fire of two years ago, the prosecution was dropped.

Col. R. H. Hunt.

LEAVENWORTH (Kan.) June 24.—Col. R. H. Hunt, quartermaster of the National Military home here, died this morning from uraemic poisoning. He had been ill for two weeks. He was formerly Mayor of Kansas City.

Sir William Whiteway.

ST. JOHNS (N. F.) June 24.—Sir William Whiteway, former premier of Newfoundland, died here today, aged 81.

LIFE WORK.

bride almost all her life, for she was the daughter of Oscar Folsom, his former law partner, and after the death of her father in 1875, he had acted as her guardian. Miss Folsom was born July 21, 1864, at Buffalo, N. Y., and she was thus 22 at the time of her marriage. Mr. Cleveland was then 49.

Miss Folsom was educated at the Central School of Buffalo and at Wells College. It was while she was at college that the attentions of her future husband first attracted notice. He was at that time Governor of New York, and the arrival of flowers sent by him from Albany excited the curiosity and comment of her fellow-students. These attentions continued after Mr. Cleveland became President, and when she graduated in June, 1885, Miss Folsom proudly displayed a superb floral tribute sent from the White House conservatory.

WORLD SEES ROMANCE.

After her graduation Miss Folsom spent the summer at the home of her uncle, Col. John B. Folsom, at Folsomville, N. Y. The world had already scented a possible romance connecting the lives of the President and the college girl, and gossip foreshadowed their future union, but they managed to keep the public in uncertainty. Mrs. Folsom and her daughter went abroad in the autumn. Miss Folsom returned from Europe in the spring of 1886, landing in New York May 27. She was met at the steamer by Miss Cleveland, the President's sister, and by Daniel S. Lamont, his private secretary, which dispelled all doubt in the public mind as to the existence of an engagement.

It had been decided to depart from the usual custom of having the wedding ceremony celebrated at the White House, thus setting a new precedent.

Miss Folsom remained at a hotel in New York for several days and then went to Washington for her marriage. The ceremony was performed in the blue room in the presence of the members of the Cabinet, their wives and the relatives of the two contracting parties. The eyes of the nation were upon the event, but it was a quiet affair, free from ostentation. President and Mrs. Cleveland went to Deer Park, Md., for a short honeymoon, and on their return to Washington set a new example for Presidential families by taking up their residence outside the White House. Mr. Cleveland had bought "Red Top," on the heights beyond Tennallytown, overlooking the city of Washington, and an old-fashioned stone dwelling made them a comfortable retreat. The President drove to and from the White House morning and evening, and politicians were not permitted to invade his home with their schemes.

RISES TO THE SITUATION.

Although little more than a girl when she assumed the duties of the first lady of the land, Mrs. Cleveland rose to the demands of the situation with great tact and adaptability. To a fine face and figure, light brown hair and violet eyes, she united a sweetness and charm of manner that made her popular in the extreme. Throughout both President Cleveland's terms his wife retained her hold on the affections of the American people, although she always shrank from unnecessary publicity. She refused to be interviewed and declined to have her name or portrait used in clubs, political societies or other organizations.

Five children were born to the Clevelands, of whom the first, Ruth, is dead. Ruth was born at No. 816 Madison avenue, New York City, October 3, 1891, between her father's two Presidential terms, and she died in 1904.

When Mr. Cleveland went back to the White House in 1893 "Baby" Ruth became a sort of national infant. The little one had the advantage of the reflected popularity of her mother, and she herself appealed to the imagination of the American people. Her acts, health and life generally were chronicled almost daily in order to satisfy the curiosity concerning her of a vast army of admirers.

The second child, Esther, was born in the White House, on September 9, 1893. Her birth set another precedent for the historic mansion, Esther Cleveland being the first child of a President born at the White House. On September 19 she was christened in the blue room, the apartment in which her father and mother were married.

Still a third daughter, Marion, was born to the Clevelands on July 7, 1895, at Gray Gables, Buzzard's Bay, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland's summer home.

The first son of Mr. Cleveland was his fourth child, born October 22, 1897, at Princeton, N. J., where the ex-President lived after his final retirement March 4, 1897. This son was christened Richard Folsom, although the students of Princeton University had tried to have the small boy named after his father by parading through the streets of the old town shouting and cheering for "Grover Cleveland, Jr." A second son, Francis Grover, was born to the Clevelands on July 18, 1903, at Buzzard's Bay.

The ex-President's full name was Stephen Grover Cleveland, but the "Stephen" early fell into disuse. He was born in Caldwell, Essex county, N. J., March 18, 1837. His father was of scholarly bent, a theological student, and for many years a minister. Young Cleveland's early life was marked by the usual ups and downs of a poor boy. The family had to go from town to town, as the father's ministerial work dictated, and Grover alternated as a clerk in a general store in Fayetteville, N. Y., to an amanuensis to his uncle, Lewis F. Allen, who resided near Buffalo.

As a youth Grover Cleveland started out to work his way upward. He was tenacious and honest, and when he became a young lawyer in Buffalo attracted attention because of his moral courage. He went into politics, and as Sheriff and later as Mayor of Buffalo he scored heavily for his adherence to economical ideas and for his close observance of sound and just methods.

His election as Governor of New York State was the decisive step in a career which was to end in the chair of the Presidency of the nation. The split between Garfield and Conkling threw thousands of Republican votes to the Democratic candidate, and Cleveland won by a plurality of 192,800.

The Clevelands returned to Princeton after the second administration of Mr. Cleveland, and have lived there quietly. Mr. Cleveland accepted but few legal commissions, but wrote a great deal for the magazines, chiefly on minor topics. He was elected a trustee of the Equitable Life Assurance Society June 16, 1905.

David R. Forgan and John M. Roach were appointed receivers for the Chicago Consolidated Traction Company by Judge Grosscup yesterday. Their bonds were fixed at $25,000 each.

McCredie's New Bush Pitcher Has the Goods.

Fielding Feature Is Danzig's One-Handed Catch.

Portland 8, Los Angeles 4.

Of course you can't expect to get ice cream soda every day and the very best the fans got yesterday was an awful package of cheese.

Dillon stuck in Randolph to pitch and the Beavers biffed the life out of him in the six innings and then Koestner was tried. Same old thing. It took them an inning to find out how he pitched and then for the next two innings they bounced his best all over the lot. Happy Hogan had a bad day of it attempting to stop some of the runs and Bernard and Delmas tried to play hand ball with several bad bounders and with the swats the Beavers tore off they had a regular picnic.

There is not much history to write of a game where one team bangs out sixteen hits. The Beavers evidently had some stable information on the coming Fourth and decided to celebrate yesterday, for there was almost a continuous bombardment of swats, there being but two innings in which there was not from one to four safe ones. The local fielders run themselves black in the face chasing the ball and the next minute would have to go right back at the same thing again.

McCredie sneaked in a new busher to pitch, whose name is Marshall, and he had all that any pitcher needs for six innings. When he first went in the fans felt sorry for him, for he looks like a sack of tobacco resting on two clay pipes. However, he had not been busy more than two innings before the fans were sorry for themselves, for he made the champions look girlish. Some say he hasn't anything, but the locals failed to even hit that. He has curves as long as the Democratic platform and as hard to understand, and he pitched a beautiful game while he lasted, and he stayed long enough to see the fellows behind him shoo Randolph to the dressing room.

There was only one fielding stunt in the game, and that was a lucky left-handed stab by Danzig of Oakes's hard liner over first base in the fifth inning. This would certainly have been good for a triple. Danzig did not realize at once that he had the ball but was warmly cheered for the stab when he saw he had it. Jud Smith shone like a real star at third, for he had three outs and six assists, and several of the latter were on fierce swats.

The Beavers commenced on Randolph in the third inning for two hits that availed nothing and came back in the fourth for two more that made two runs, helped out by Bernard's juggle. Bassey singled to center and Danzig to left and then Bernard juggled Johnson's hard grounder, Bassey scoring and Danzig reaching third; and the latter scored after the catch of Madden's fly to right. Two singles, a pass, a passed ball, a sacrifice, a steal, and a wild throw of Hogan's to second made two more in the fifth. Three singles and a passed ball made another in the sixth and then Randolph retired.

Koestner came in for the seventh and shut them out but in the eighth and ninth five singles, a double and a pass made three runs.

The locals began to score in the third, when Hogan reached second on Johnson's juggle of his grounder and wild throw to first. Randolph then hit to short and in trying to confuse Cooney at short, Hogan was hit by the ball and was out, of course. Randolph advanced on Bernard's pass and ran to third when Bernard was forced at second by Oakes. Then Dillon hit a long fly to left which Bassey muffed and Randolph and Oakes scored.

The two final runs came from Koestner's single, Dillon's double to right, and Brashear's hit to center.

SEALS PLAY POORLY.

THROW AWAY A VICTORY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] San Francisco errors and a combination of poor catching and poor throwing at critical moments, tossed away a game for the Seals this afternoon. Oakland took full advantage of the mishaps of the unfortunates who are holding down the seat in the cellar, and won a 4-to-1 game that by right should have belonged to the Mohler bunch by something like 1 to 0.

It would easily have been a pitchers' battle between Wright and Harry Sutor but for the poor backing that was accorded the San Franciscan, for the errors that were made came nicely timed with the few hits that were had off his delivery. The locals deserved to lose, and their fielding at times savored of the town-lot variety. San Francisco made its one run legitimately. Williams singled through short in the second inning, stole second, went to third on an out, and was scored on Zeider's single to right.

In the sixth, Wright hit to the infield, and went to second on an overthrow by Curtis. Van Haltren attempted to sacrifice, but Sutor turned a bot one down to Curtis to head off Wright, and the ball went whistling by the third baseman. That scored the Deacon, and after Haley beat out a bunt, Van Haltren was scored on Heitmuller's hit to left field.

There was a duplication of the sadness in the seventh. Vi. Hogan opened proceedings with a hit, and was sacrificed to second by Altman, who was safe, however, on the third error of the afternoon by Curtis. Cook and Wright fanned, but Hogan and Altman executed the double steal, scoring Hogan. Dutch Altman went as far as third on a bad throw by Claude Berry, and he was scored by Van Haltren and his high-field hit.

GRIFFITH RESIGNS.

ELBERFELD MAY SUCCEED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PHILADELPHIA, June 24.—Clark Griffith, manager of the New York American League baseball team, tendered his resignation to Frank Farrell, owner of the team today.

Griffith asked to be relieved from the management of the team several days ago, and following a conference with Mr. Farrell before the game with Philadelphia here today, he tendered his resignation to take effect at once.

Griffith said he was disheartened and felt that he ought to get out and give Mr. Farrell a chance to try another manager. He said there was no dissension among the players.

Shortstop Elberfeld is mentioned as Griffith's successor.

DUGDALE GETS BUSY.

EXTENDS TEAM FRANCHISES.

SEATTLE, June 24.—The Northwestern Baseball League directors at a meeting here yesterday extended the franchises of every club in the league for five years. The clubs are Seattle, Aberdeen, Vancouver, Spokane, Tacoma and Butte.

The move of fixing the franchise term at five years means that Portland, in the Coast League, is now dropped from consideration. For two years the Northwestern League magnates have been waiting for Portland to leave the Coast league and come into its logical territory. There is no prospect of this now and all tentative moves to that end are abandoned.

VENICE AMBITIOUS.

WANTS REAL BASEBALL.

Manager Berry of the Los Angeles team passed a few hours at Venice yesterday morning considering the baseball situation there, with the idea of playing a Sunday morning game there before the Coast League teams go North again. The grounds are in bad shape at present and if the necessary arrangements could be made, Oakland and Los Angeles might play there the morning of July 5, merely to see how the beach people take to Coast League ball on a Sunday morning. The Beach Combers must show a little class in the attendance line if they want a Venice team in the league next season.

Berry is considering Pasadena, San Pedro and Long Beach for the league also and whichever town offers the best inducements for a team will probably get the franchise that is to come south.

Still After Gray.

The Boston American team has been after Dolly Gray again this week for the third or fourth time since the drafting season closed last year and Manager Berry still refuses to sell him. Some months ago Boston offered Berry $4000 for Gray but he thought at that time that Dolly was worth almost twice as much and positively declined to think of an offer for him until after the season closed. He will probably be sold before November, in order to prevent drafting.

LURLINE ON THE WAYS.

Los Angeles Yacht Being Prepared at San Diego for Race Across the Pacific.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, June 24.—The yacht Lurline, owned by Commodore H. H. Sinclair of Pasadena is receiving a general scraping and overhauling on the marine ways in the local harbor, for the trans-Pacific race, July 4. Commodore Sinclair, who is staying at Hotel del Coronado, is a faithful watcher of the performances of the men engaged in cleaning the hull of his favorite boat. The work will be completed tonight or tomorrow, and the commodore expects to return at once to San Pedro.

"We are going to do our best, at any rate," was the commodore's reply to a query if he thought the Lurline would beat the Hawaii or the Lady Maud. "You see," he continued, "we don't know what the new Hawaiian boat is capable of doing, but I believe she is no better built than the Lurline, and we may best her."

Commodore Sinclair while here has made an inspection of the Lady Maud, Wilbur Eyle's boat, and he complimented the owner on her general neat appearance. However, he did not venture an opinion as to what he thought the Maud's chances will be in a race with the Lurline.

The Honolulu yacht Hawaii, which is also entered in the race, is expected here tomorrow to be taken out on the marine ways for an overhauling. She will take the place of the Lurline, which has been on the ways for two days.

PUT IN DRY DOCK.

GWENDOLYN BRUSHING UP.

The yacht Gwendolyn, Capt. L. B. Johnston, from Seattle, which will take part in the Honolulu race July 4, is to be put in dry dock at Joe Fellows's ship yards today to receive a few minor repairs and a thorough cleaning preparatory to the long cruise.

Gwendolyn is purely a cruising yacht and was not built with any intention of being used in racing trials. Designed on lines of the latest models, and endowed with plenty of speed, Capt. Johnston is confident the yacht will make a creditable showing.

The Hawaii was overhauled yesterday and given a thorough washing and rubdown. The trim clipper is anchored off the club anchorage to the south of the breakwater, and attracted attention from pleasure parties from Long Beach and San Pedro. Today the Hawaii will take a trip to San Diego.

Brothers in Crews.

The Bacons are not the only brothers who are in the Harvard oarsmen squad, which rows Yale at New London, Conn., June 25. There are the two Cutlers, one of them has just gone into the university eight, and the other is stroke and captain of the freshman eight. Reece, who is now stroking the university four, has a brother who is a substitute on the freshman eight. There are two Willingtons, one a substitute on the varsity, and the other rowing four in the freshman eight.

Trilby Is Launched.

SAN DIEGO, June 24.—Lawrence Jensen has launched the Trilby, a newly-built yacht, which is to be a contender for The Times cup. The boat will participate in her maiden race to La Jolla for the Benham cup next Sunday. The Trilby was constructed after plans furnished by Crowninshield and is expected to be the fastest twenty-eight-footer on the Coast.

Sheridan May Retire.

NEW YORK, June 24.—With the departure of the American team for the Olympic games in London only a few days away, word of the probability of the withdrawal of another top class man from the aggregation to the three who early in the week announced their inability to make the trip, is made. Manager Halpin has been informed that Martin J. Sheridan, entered for the discus throw, would probably decline to start for London with the team on Saturday. Western athletes are beginning to arrive and the entire team is expected to be on hand Friday night at the New York Athletic Club for the final muster.

CONFIDENCE.

PACKEY "SURE" HE WILL WIN.

Has no Doubts About Beating Freddie Welsh.

Pleases Sports by Easy Style of His Work.

Jeffries Club After Cross to Fight Frank Carsey.

Packey McFarland is getting along merrily in his preparatory work for his meeting with Freddie Welsh on July 4. Merrily is the word, for if there is the least bit of anxiety as to the outcome in the mind of the stock yards champion, he certainly conceals it from those who saw him work out yesterday, his actions being more those of a happy schoolboy at play than those of a fighter about to tackle the hardest man he has yet been called on to face.

Packey took his usual eight or nine miles on the road yesterday, simply to keep his wind in good condition, though it is so evident that he has taken such good care of himself in the past that he could step into the ring at any time and make good. He can tell you more than the average man about the attractions of the Windy City, and he carries with him the usual enthusiasm of those hailing from there, but his knowledge does not extend to the seamy side of the great city, as is often the case with boys having championship aspirations coming from there.

Scarcely twenty years of age, and not looking a day older, there is yet something decidedly impressive about this possible successor to Joe Gans, and if he can dispose of as good a man as Freddie Welsh has shown himself to be, in the contest on July 4, there is no reason why he cannot occupy the rung on the ladder next to the great black.

The afternoon was put in at shadow boxing, pulling the weights and a little tame sparring. One thing that makes it difficult to judge of Packey's ability is the easy manner in which he does his work, leading to the impression at all times that he is "under a pull." None of the gruelling, punishing work is in evidence at the South Side quarters, and the men who work out with him do not at this early date show the effects of the hard pummeling that usually falls to the lot of the sparring partner of a prospective campion.

Four speedy rounds with Young Adams and four more with Charlie Anslinger ended up the work yesterday, and there was a good display of speed, cleverness and headwork on the part of Packey throughout, without any attempt to show off. Pat Kennedy and Harry Dunn, his other sparring partners, are being reserved for the more trying work of the next week, which should place the Chicago boy inside the roped arena on July 4 in as perfect condition as an athlete can be.

While his smooth, easy work did not particularly appeal to the crowd assembled to see him in action yesterday, the wisest fans among them expressed themselves as perfectly satisfied with his appearance and work, one of them voicing the sentiment of those few when he said: "Packey is not the style of fighter who will greatly impress those who see him in his daily routine work, but no danger of that boy leaving his real fight out at his training camp, as so often happens to good men in their overanxiety to get fit. There will be a revelation for those who doubt his fighting ability when they see him in action on the afternoon of July 4. There alone will they see the real Packey McFarland, whose record for the number of battles fought shows more percentage of knockouts than that of any man in the ring today, not even excepting Gans."

WELTER PROBLEM.

BLACKBURN HAS CHANCE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Kyle Whitney—Jimmy Gardner fight is stirring up more interest here than many of the championship contests. Dick Dawson, the local sport who plunges heavily on any betting proposition, has waged $500 even that the colored boy will win and considerable money has already changed hands at 10 to 9 with the Lowell boy the favorite.

Both Whitney and Gardner are confident of winning and each admits that his main hope in victory will be the chance of meeting Jack Blackburn, the Eastern crack welter, who defeated Gardner in a six-round bout. Whoever whips Blackburn will be champion welterweight, as Ketchel can't get back into that class again.

After Leach Cross.

The Jeffries club was figuring on using Carsey and Brock for a fight on July 17, but this match has been called off because Brock has a match with Kid Tex in San Diego between July 10 and July 17. In place of Brock, the club hopes to secure Leach Cross, who defeated Dick Hyland in New York last week. A telegram was sent him yesterday, and he will probably accept the offer.

Freddie Welsh took life easily yesterday, and almost his entire exercise consisted of three rounds of light boxing with Kid Carsey. He is down to 123 pounds, and really is not in need of any hard work.

In McFarland's circle of friends there is said to be plenty of money at evens that he will win, but one of the Spring-street resorts was holding out yesterday for 10 to 6. The layer stated that 10 to 8 would probably be the odds, but as Welsh's friends saw a chance to get the short end they would wait for the best of it.

McCarey's Next Card.

Manager McCarey has announced that on the night of July 3 he would have another try-out programme of ten-round bouts at the Pacific Athletic Club, patterned after the card dealt last Friday night. It is the intention to have as many new faces in the ring as possible.

CHANGE TO RESTAURANTS.

Bookmakers' Stands Replaced by Tables, but Police Keep Sharp Eyes on Chefs.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, June 24.—The greatest outward change in the appearance of the Sheepshead Bay race course since the Coney Island Jockey Club's meeting opened under the provisions of the Hart-Agnew anti-betting law has just been made, the former betting rings, by the simple expedient of moving in tables, chairs and benches, having been transformed into open-air restaurants and lounging places.

The spaces are cool and breezy, but the people refuse to forget the records of the inclosure, and a guard of the scattered patrolmen keep watch on the outskirts of the new restaurants.

Horsemen have taken keen interest in the fight in Louisiana against the winter tracks, and received with lively approval an announcement on behalf of the New California Jockey Club of San Francisco that the racing there will be on the greatest scale ever known. It is believed here that the proposed extension of the San Francisco meetings and the addition of a number of big-stake events will attract to the Coast large numbers of the best eastern horses.

Plan World's Tour.

San Francisco football enthusiasts are preparing to welcome a team of junior football players (Victoria Rules) which will make a tour of the world via New Zealand and San Francisco. The tour, which will occupy over a year, will be accompanied by a schoolmaster, thus enabling the lads to continue in their study. On leaving San Francisco the team will go to the Eastern States and play in all the large centers, and after a fortnight's stay in New York, Canada will be visited. A stay of three months has been arranged for in England and other centers on the continent. The Australian style of football is declared to be more scientific than all other games; less dangerous to the players and infinitely more interesting to the spectators.

Michigan, with two Grand Circuit meetings, a great western meeting, a powerful State trotting circuit, giving fifteen weeks of racing and $125,000 in purses and attracting some of the best horses in America to its confines, besides many county fairs, where betting is allowed, all assured for the season of 1908, is not surpassed by any State in the Union.

Habitual Constipation

May be permanently overcome by proper personal efforts with the assistance of the one truly beneficial laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, which enables one to form regular habits daily so that assistance to nature may be gradually dispensed with when no longer needed as the best of remedies, when required, are to assist nature and not to supplant the natural functions, which must depend ultimately upon proper nourishment, proper efforts, and right living generally. To get its beneficial effects, always buy the genuine

FIRST KITTEN SHOW TODAY.

Two Hundred Entries in of Litters Reared in Southern California Kennels.

The first kitten show ever benched west of Chicago is to be opened today at Chutes Park and daily exhibitions will be given for four days. Over two hundred entries are already booked and it is expected that a number of late entries will be received from interior points. Cat fanciers from all over Southern California are greatly interested in the show and have placed their finest pussies on exhibition.

Angoras, Persian, Maltese and a few short-hairs will constitute the personnel of the show, and many of the finest strains in the country will be on exhibition. No prizes will be offered, as it is the purpose of the exhibitors to give the show as an eye-opener to the extensive cat culture now carried on in Southern California.

The Executive Committee in charge of the exhibit includes: Mrs. J. C. Girton, chairman; Mrs. N. A. Wolcott, secretary; Mrs. H. G. Gorham and Mrs. G. H. Cushman.

The Shanghai Cup.

Robert H. Hunt of Shanghai, China, has presented the Worcester (Mass.) Golf Club with a most unique trophy, to be competed for by any golf cup in New England. It is a beautiful silver loving cup, 12 inches tall, six inches in diameter, purely Chinese in its make and decoration, the handles of the cup being the famous dragon so familiar in Chinese decoration. It is artistically chased, gold lined with handles of exceptionally heavy silver. It rests on a black teakwood stand, upon which is engraved on a plate "The Shanghai Cup."

Charles Webb Murphy was not with the Chicago Cubs on the last eastern trip. He stayed in Chicago to see Secretary Taft nominated. The Secretary's brother, Charles P. Taft, a Cincinnati multi-millionaire, gave Murphy his start in baseball, hence a strong attachment on the house of Murphy for the house of Taft.

The Only Food

The only wheat food that is perfectly cooked—a pretty strong claim, is it not?

Steam-cooked for six hours—then thoroughly cured—then baked at 400 degrees.

It requires 96 hours to turn wheat into Mapl-Flake. Yet flaked food can be made in from 18 to 20 hours. Let us tell you what a difference that makes in the food.

Wheat is composed largely of starch.

Starch, to be digestible, must be made soluble. The particles must be separated, so the digestive juices can get to them.

You cannot digest raw starch.

The only way to break up the granules of starch is to apply a fierce heat, and for long. That is why wheat is flaked—to get it so thin that the heat goes through.

In baking bread, the inside of the loaf never gets heat enough. That is why bread doesn't all digest. That is why more will digest when it's toasted.

The more starch you break up by heat, the more food you will get. But no form of wheat food—save Mapl-Flake—is so cooked that all of the wheat becomes digestible.

Mapl-Flake alone is all food.

That is why Mapl-Flake is the most economical food. It is all nourishment.

But that isn't all. When only half of a food digests the other half ferments and breeds germs. It always causes, in some degree, symptoms of indigestion. Dyspeptic symptoms are usually due to the failure of starch to digest.

Mapl-Flake is cooked with pure maple syrup. That's for the children, mainly—to make them like the food that is best for them.

You can't keep the fame of a good man locked within the confines of his own town. This has been amply demonstrated.

Same way with Imperiales Cigarettes. They started as practically a local Western product. They became general Western favorites. Now have grown so big in fame and favor that their sales are steadily advancing all over America.

IMPERIALES

The men of the West alone smoked over 125,000,000 Imperiales in 1907. Its the absolute merit of Imperiales Cigarettes alone which has built up this tremendous sale.

Imperiales are rolled in thin, pure mais paper—crimped, not pasted—and have individual mouthpieces to cool the smoke.

Smoke them all day long if you want to —no after effects.

Classified Liners.

Times Classified Rates: The rate for inserting "Want" ads in The Daily Times is 1c per word for each insertion; in the Sunday issue 1½c per word, each insertion; minimum charge 25c; except under following classifications the rate for which is 10c per line, minimum charge 50 cents: "Society Meetings," "Personals," "Special Notices," and "Baths and Massage."

"Liner" (classified) advertisements for Sunday insertion received over the counter or by telephone after 11:30 o'clock Saturday nights will be inserted under heading "Too Late to Classify."

Sunday real estate advertisements, to be classified properly, must be in The Times office before 10:30 o'clock Saturday nights. Rate 1½ cents per word.

The Sunday circulation of The Times exceeds 77,000 copies, and more "liners" are regularly printed in its columns than in the five other Los Angeles newspapers combined.

Telephone your want advertisements. Ring up "The Times" any time of day or night and secure prompt and careful attention.

The Times cannot guarantee accuracy or assume responsibility for errors of any kind occurring in telephoned advertisements.

THE TIMES will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement ordered for more than one time.

Advertisers should retain receipts given by The Times in payment for "Liners," as no mistakes can be rectified without them.

Julius Bromboscher retains possession of all property of the copartnership, including all book accounts, and will continue to operate the Architectural Iron Works at 1858-1872 Long Beach ave. Dated this 10th day of June, 1908. JULIUS BROMBACHER. 24

SUNDAY REAL ESTATE LINERS—

Classified real estate advertisements for insertion in THE SUNDAY TIMES must be left at the office not later than 10:30 o'clock Saturday nights. Other "want" advertisements for Sunday insertion will be taken over the counter until 11:30 p.m.

The great volume of liners printed in The Sunday Times, numbering regularly over 2000 separate announcements, makes this regulation to insure necessary time in order to get the big Sunday issue out on time.

FOR SALE—THE CORDOZA STOCK AND grain ranch, consisting of 2250 acres, situated on graded road, 6 miles southeast of Dickinson depot, (Santa Fe line,) in Merced county, Cal. This land is rich and very productive in hay, grain, fruit and roots; 1000 acres have been seeded to grain, nearly all can be cultivated; excellent pasturage for 500 head of stock, with sufficient running and developed water. This ranch is in the rain zone and requires no irrigation. There is a large, new, modern dwelling, and barn for stock and hay, good fences and cross-fenced. With this ranch goes 80 head of stock—horses, mules, cattle, farming implements, harness, wagons, for the low price of $70 per acre; will consider some exchange, easy terms, on balance. Three seasons' crops with increase of stock will pay for this magnificent property, advantages. San Francisco, with a population of 500,000, 120 miles to the north, and Los Angeles, with a population of over 300,000, a little over 200 miles to the south, create a competitive market for all products. The low rate of freight to both cities leaves the producer a larger percentage of net profit than can be obtained in any other locality in the United States, Canada or Mexico. This fact alone is worth a fortune to the investor. Think it over.

FOR SALE— The ad I saw at Montebello I advertised last Sunday at $6500, and former price $7500, well I'm too ashamed to quote present price, but you come and see me, reasonable offer and there'll be something doing. A $1000 berry crop has just been sold, but still a nice income left. Has 121 walnut trees, 4½ in berries, 4½ in young orchard, balance in alfalfa. Whole interset with variety of berries; new 6-room cottage with bath, furnished; fine barn and storage house; all necessary farming tools; large flowers and a beautiful and attractive place; flumed for irrigating from best cistern in Southern California; water piped every-where needed, in fact, one of the best and cheapest places we ever advertised. Nothing needed but about ½ cash at present, and you've got a ranch. The 7th-st. railroad is going straight through Montebello, as is also the electric line from Monrovia to Long Beach; look it up; I know whereof I speak, and 1 acre will be worth what you are now paying for this ranch. Monday, 9 o'clock. Call on T. S. of the HORACE G. HAMILTON CO., 241 Pay Bldg., Third and Hill. 25

FOR SALE— ½ ACRES BEST. FARM LAND FOR $1200. MONTE VISTA RANCH.

I am selling the famous Monte Vista estate in 5 and 10-acre tracts at $250 per acre, small payment down and $5 per acre per month. Monte Vista is one hour distant from Los Angeles on the Salt Lake and Southern Pacific Railroads. It is midway between Pomona and Ontario. It is only 2 miles south from the banks, stores and electric line of Ontario, a city of 6500. It is surrounded on four sides by bearing orange groves, valued at $1000 to $2000 per acre. Water is piped to each 5-acre tract. The soil is rich and fertile, identically the same as the cultivated groves around it. It will grow all crops well. Groves will provide a comfortable living while the land is rapidly increasing to the value of surrounding groves.

PASADENA GIRL.

A polite young colored girl from Pasadena, Naomi Davis, entered the race yesterday. She was nominated by F. R. Knight of No. 225 South Euclid avenue, and has already started out to win a good standing in next Sunday's score.

One of yesterday's interesting incidents was a call from a tiny girl just 10 years of age, and so shy that she tucked her face down in her curls, and asked her father to say what she wanted. She had been reading the daily Times, and she had read about the fine musical scholarships that were to be won for the working, so she asked her father to bring her in to see the scholarship manager. "Why, you are just two years too young little girl," said the manager, trying to get a peep at the rosy face. The small maid has made up her mind to grow and have two more birthdays as soon as she can, so that she may enter in 1910.

THE RALLY.

All the eager boys and girls are looking forward to tomorrow afternoon, when they may come to their own rally. The Times repeats its invitation to every contestant, both past and present, to call at The Times library at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Every young man or young woman, every boy and every girl who has been through a former contest is especially asked to come and meet their successors in the contest, which opens bright and early Saturday morning.

Nearly sixty contestants are on the register at present, and outlying districts are sending in new representatives every day.

SCHOLARSHIPS OFFERED.

Below is a partial list of scholarships offered to contestants. It will be increased from time to time as a number of other institutions will be included. The scholarships below represent a valuation of $2400.

ENDEAVORERS MEET.

SACRAMENTO, June 24.—With a big meeting this evening, the twenty-first annual convention of the Christian Endeavorers of the State began, and will last over Sunday.

Two thousand visitors from all parts of the State are here.

State President Edward McKinley of Fruitvale made the opening address and was followed by Mayor Clinton L. White of Sacramento. In responding to the welcoming remarks of the Mayor, the Rev. E. B. Hayes of Petaluma referred to the growth of the organization since it first met in the city in its early history, and the good that had been accomplished.

Next year the convention will be held in Southern California, following the rule that it is held in alternate years north and south of the Tehachepi. Pasadena seems to be in the lead for the honors so far, but Riverside also has a strong following.

SURRENDER TO GOVERNMENT.

NEW York, June 24.—Moses Haas and Fred E. Peckham, indicted in Washington in connection with the government cotton report leak cases, surrendered themselves here today and were arraigned before Commissioner Shields on a charge of bribery and conspiracy to defraud the government. Haas was held in $5000 bail and Peckham was paroled today in the custody of his counsel.

WILL BE EXTRADITED.

James T. Mulhall, known as the "king of produce thieves," will be taken to Minneapolis next week by United States Marshal Leo Youngworth. He will be tried for using the mails for fraudulent purposes in connection with exploiting a creamery company, which the postal inspectors say was a swindle.

The Spanish steamer Larache from Buenos Ayres, has been wrecked on the Spanish coast in the vicinity of the Muros. Forty of her passengers have arrived at that port. Details of the disaster are still lacking. The Larache was owned by the Companis Transatlantica of Barcelona.

ST. PAUL (Minn.) June 24.—Specials to the Pioneer Press state that the returns received at midnight indicate that United States Senator Hansbrough has been defeated at the North Dakota primary, and that C. B. Little (stalward) and T. E. Marshall (insurgent) will be the two high men in the race.

SAILING DATE CHANGED.

Second Division of Pacific Coast Fleet Will not Leave San Francisco Until July 1.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Announcement is made at the Navy Department of a change in the departure of the second division of the Pacific fleet from San Francisco for San Diego, from June 25 to July 1. The division comprises the Tennessee, Washington, California, South Dakota and the torpedo boat destroyers Preble, Perry and Farragut. They are scheduled for a practice cruise.

MERCHANTS MOURN.

FOR GOOD CASH GET POOR PAPER.

YOUNG MAN OF YUCAIPA MAKES POCKETS LIGHTER.

Secures Money from Redlands Traders on Checks Which Are Marked "Incorrect Signature." Anxious Creditors Visit Mountain Home, but Fail to Find Him.

REDLANDS, June 24.—Roy F. Haslett, about 25 years old, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Haslett, who reside near Casa Blanca in the Yucaipa Valley, last Saturday liquidated a number of debts and $194 in cash from Redlands business men on checks drawn on the First National Bank of Los Angeles, and bearing, it is said, the forged signature of George W. Hopkins of Los Angeles, well known here as being extensively interested in the colonization of Yucaipa Valley.

When the checks were returned from Los Angeles yesterday marked "incorrect signature," several of the parties interested secured an automobile and visited the young man's home, only to find that he had left for parts unknown, leaving his parents no clew as to his whereabouts. The latter were prostrated by the information conveyed by the visitors, and expressed their willingness to do everything in their power to aid in his apprehension.

J. J. Suess handed over $100 in cash and took in exchange a check for $150, at the same time striking an account of $50 off the books. The Graham-Cope Commercial Company accepted a check for $80 in payment of a $15 debt. The Redlands Hardware Company is out the sum of $44, retaining as a gentle reminder a piece of blue paper calling for $50. Caldwell & Carithers, the phonograph men, sold the young man $10 worth of supplies and took their pay out of a check for $25, handing over the difference in cash.

The man evidently had his plans carefully laid, as he worked his scheme after banking hours Saturday, knowing that the checks could not be deposited before Monday, and that they would then have to go to Los Angeles, giving him plenty of time to get away. His present whereabouts are entirely problematical, and small hopes are entertained of his speedy capture.

FINDS DREAM FACE.

HARRISON KNOWS HIS WIFE ONLY.

RETURNS TO TOPEKA, BUT FAILS TO RECOGNIZE PARENTS.

Man of Dual Personality, Found on Chicken Ranch Near San Diego, Had Dreams of Woman's Face and Sees It on Meeting Better Half; Remembers Nothing Else.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOPEKA (Kan.) June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] George Blair Harrison of dual personality fame who wandered away January 4, and was found near San Diego, last week living on a chicken ranch as A. H. Gresham, returned to Topeka today.

He recognised his wife, but did not recognize his mother, sister or father, and others he had known for years. Pictures and names of men he had been associated with for years did not serve to call up any memories of his nearly thirty years' residence in Kansas as an editor.

During the six months he had been in California, Harrison had many dreams, and in all of them there was a woman's face. When he saw his wife, he said:

"You are the woman of my dreams."

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison drove about town for several hours before going to his home. Just as they drove away his mother came up. He shook hands with her, casually at first, and when told that it was his mother, he kissed her.

SLAIN IN PHILIPPINES.

Two Americans and Four Natives Fall Victims to Hill Tribesmen While Crossing Negros Island.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MANILA, June 25.—A telegram received here today from the Island of Negros tells of the murder of H. D. Everett, a government forester, T. R. Wakely, a school teacher, and four Filipinos, by hill tribesmen. The party had started across the Island of Negros, which is one of the least civilized of the extreme southern group of islands, and had been missing for six weeks. No details of the murders have been received here.

FACTS ABOUT MISSING.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 24.—H. D. Everett, a native of New York, whose murder on the Island of Negros by hill tribesmen is reported from Manila, was transferred to the Philippine forestry service from the Forestry Bureau here in August, 1905.

T. R. Wakely, a graduate of the University of Chicago, also killed, was 27 years old, and went from Chicago to teach school in the Philippines a year ago. The Negros has given the authorities the least trouble of any people in the archipelago.

CLEVELAND.

He was the possessor of great talents, of untiring industry, and executive capacity that had few parallels. His eight years of administration of the government will safely endure the sure test of time. His personal and official integrity were beyond all possible question.

"As a candidate upon the national ticket with Mr. Cleveland, in his last contest, I was in confidential relations with him, and often a guest at his house. He was a delightful host. Blessed in his domestic relations, his home was one of the happiest I have ever known.

"Not only as a statesman, but as the affectionate husband and father, he is entitled to grateful remembrance.

"The passing of Grover Cleveland marks an epoch. He was indeed a striking figure in American history. His like we may not soon see again. He was a great man—a great President. His early struggles, his tireless energy, his lofty ideals, and the splendid success that crowned his efforts should be an abiding inspiration to his countrymen."

DENIES PRIVATE QUARREL.

WATTERSON ON CLEVELAND.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) June 24.—"I knew Mr. Cleveland well. It is a mistake that there was ever a personal quarrel between us," said Henry Watterson today on being informed of the death of President Cleveland.

"My only difference with him was public and political, not private. Indeed, I liked Mr. Cleveland rather than disliked him. He was sturdy, and he was honest. His failure to unite the great liberal forces of the country into a compact body, and to lead them onward to the realisation of the enlightened and systematic reforms which had been already marked out by him was due partly to his lack of preparation and training in national affairs; partly to his lack of tact in the management of men.

"Throughout his first term in the White House, he was handicapped by the want of familiarity with both men and the measures of the time.

"Throughout his second administration he was as a man treading on eggs, who does not always see clearly or choose his way with circumspection. He had grown overconfident from success. He had gained favor from the popular belief in his good intentions—which were undeniable—and he trusted too much to the heavy hand and not enough to moral forces and organized ideas.

"Mr. Cleveland's duty was his integrity, his courage, and his common sense within the radius of his mental vision. Impatient of restraint, he had a leaning toward the lowly and distrust of the official great; somewhat overquick to resent advice and to regard it as an intrusion. In point of fact he was a sympathetic, though not an emotional or effusive man, and as sensitive as a woman."

FLAGS IN ENGLAND OWERED.

REID'S TRIBUTE TO CLEVELAND.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, June 24.—The flags over Dorchester house and the American embassy were placed at half-mast today on the receipt of news of the death of Mr. Cleveland.

Mr. Reid said:

"I had a high personal appreciation of Mr. Cleveland and my cordial relations with him, which began when he was Mayor of Buffalo, never were broken. I believe Mr. Cleveland has grown steadily in the respect and appreciation of the American people since his retirement from office."

Mr. Cleveland is best remembered in England as the author of the "Venezuelan Message," and most of the afternoon papers, while speaking appreciatively of his career, recall this incident. The Globe says it astonished the civilized world and that only the statesmanship of Lord Salisbury and the calmness of the British public averted a war at that time.

The Evening News publishes the dispatch giving Mr. Cleveland's death under the head line, "The President Who Threatened War."

CHILDREN ARE SHOCKED.

WILL HASTEN TO PRINCETON.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

TAMWORTH (N. H.) June 24.—Mrs. H. E. Perrine, Mrs. Cleveland's mother, received the announcement of President Cleveland's death by long-distance telephone from Princeton this afternoon.

The news came as a great shock, both to the children and to Mrs. Perrine, as it was evidently unlooked for. Mrs. Perrine immediately made arrangements for returning to Princeton and she and the children will start from here at 3:30 o'clock a.m. tomorrow, arriving in time for the funeral on Friday. The Cleveland place is in an isloated district far from the railroad and telegraph lines.

TYPE OF PUBLIC SERVANT.

FAIRBANKS LAUDS CLEVELAND.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

INDIANAPOLIS, June 24.—Vice-President Fairbanks said today that he probably would attend the funeral of Mr. Cleveland. He said:

"Grover Cleveland was one of the best and most patriotic statesmen the country has produced. He devoted himself to the public service with singleness of purpose, and stood by his convictions on important public questions with a sturdy courage that commanded admiration among the great body of the people.

"He was a many-sided man, a man of broad and generous sympathies. His influence was always for good. He was, indeed, the very best type of public servant and private citizen."

DON M. DICKINSON ILL.

CAN'T BE TOLD OF DEATH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DETROIT, June 24.—Hon. Don M. Dickinson of this city, former Postmaster-General in President Cleveland's Cabinet, is ill in a sanatorium at Flint, Mich., suffering from nervous breakdown.

James H. Cullen, one of Mr. Dickinson's law partners, said he spent yesterday afternoon with Mr. Dickinson, and, while he is improved, his condition is still such that his physician probably would not permit him to be told of Mr. Cleveland's death.

It will be entirely impossible for Mr. Dickinson to attend the funeral ceremonies of the former President.

HOKE SMITH GRIEVED.

TELLS OF LIMITLESS COURAGE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ATLANTA (Ga.) June 24.—Gov. Hoke Smith, Secretary of the Interior under Cleveland, said:

"I am deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mr. Cleveland. He was one of the rare men that live in a generation. His courage and devotion to convictions of right had no limit. He reached conclusions after great deliberation, and after obtaining all accessible information, then immovably adhered to his conclusion.

"He was big in brain and in body. Duty was with him the constant route of conduct."

PRAISES HIS PATRIOTISM.

CANNON ADDS TRIBUTE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DANVILLE (Ill.) June 24.—Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, when told of the death of Grover Cleveland, said:

"I very much regret Mr. Cleveland's demise. I was a member of the House of Representatives during both his administrations, and while I was a member of the opposition party, and did not agree with his economic policies, both then and now, I recognise his great ability, his courage and patriotism. He will dwell in history as one of the greatest President of this country.

CARLISLE IS GRIEVED.

CLEVELAND WAS HIS FRIEND.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, June 24.—John G. Carlisle, Secretary of the Treasury under Cleveland, who is in the city on business, was asked for a word on the death of the ex-President. Mr. Carlisle replied that Mr. Cleveland was too great a man to discuss with a few words.

The death of his old friend and chief greatly grieved Mr. Carlisle, who said he would attend the funeral on Friday.

CLEVELAND ON TARIFF.

HISTORY OF NOTED MESSAGE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) June 24.—The Milwaukee Journal today prints a story purporting to be the authentic history in connection with President Cleveland's stand on the tariff, replying to charges alleged to have recently been made by Henry Watterson that Grover Cleveland was not only at heart the foe of tariff reduction, but that he did everything in his power to prevent his party from taking advanced ground on the subject.

Secretary Whitney, the Journal says, was the stumbling block in the way of a tariff-reform plank.

In the fall of 1888, the Journal says, President Cleveland, during his tour of the West, spent two days at Madison, Wis., a guest of Col. William F. Vilas, a member of his Cabinet, and broached his plan of devoting his annual message entirely to exposition of the evils of the high tariff. Col. Vilas assured the President that the members of his Cabinet would abide by his decision.

Continuing, the Journal says:

"Some time later, after the President's return to Washington, he announced to his Cabinet his intention to carry out this plan.

"Secretary Whitney of the navy advised against it. It would hurt the party in the next election, he declared, and he advised temporising. Col. Vilas, replying to Mr. Whitney, strongly sided with the President, and declared that the right thing to do was the expedient thing to do.

"When the Cabinet adjourned there was no doubt that President Cleveland would take the bull by the horns. He did so, and his tariff message stands today as the most famous of American public documents dealing with the tariff."

STRICT DEVOTION TO DUTY.

FRANCIS LAUDS CLEVELAND.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. LOUIS, June 24.—Former Gov. D. R. Francis, who was Secretary of the Interior during the second administration of President Cleveland, when told of the death of the former President, said:

"Mr. Cleveland was a truly great man and a patriot of the highest type. The service he rendered the republic has never been fully appreciated, but will be held in higher and higher estimate as the years roll by.

"He was a Democrat of Democrats and understood the true principles of the doctrine as thoroughly, if not more so, than any man of his generation.

"His taking off at this juncture is an overwhelming loss to the country as well as to his family. I knew him well and I never entertained the slightest doubt as to his sincerity of motive or his unselfishness of purpose. When in public office he was untiring in his devotion to duty and so mindful of the public interests that he was willing to sacrifice thereto not only personal friendship but every interest and relation that came into conflict with his official trust.

"The country and every good citizen owes him a lasting debt for the part he performed in establishing the republic on foundations broad and deep. His character is a priceless heritage and all who are aspiring to public office should study his policies and emulate his wisdom, his patroitism and his courage.

"Every Democrat should be proud of the record made by the only member of the party who has held the chief magistracy of the republic for half a century and every citizen, regardless of party affiliation, should claim interest and be thankful for the noble example of citizenship furnished by Grover Cleveland."

Mr. Francis, accompanied by his wife, departed for Princeton late today for the funeral.

NOTIFIED OF DEATH.

CLEVELAND'S SISTER SHOCKED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

OMAHA (Neb.) June 24.—Mrs. Mary Cleveland Hoyt, a sister of former President Cleveland, was notified of her brother's death by a brief telegram from Mrs. Cleveland. She had planned to leave for Spokane within a day or two, but immediately changed her arrangements, and will start for Princeton tonight.

Mrs. Hoyt had a letter from the ex-President within a week, and another from Mrs. Cleveland, both of which stated that there was nothing dangerous in the condition of her brother. Mrs. Hoyt's son is clerk of the United States District Court of Omaha.

TYPICAL AMERICAN.

HARMON RECALLS WORK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DETROIT, June 24.—Judson Harmon, formerly Attorney-General in President Cleveland's Cabinet, telegraphed from Charlevoix, Mich.:

"My official relations with Mr. Cleveland begot personal affection as well as esteem and respect for his high mental and moral qualities. I shall attend the funeral if I can reach Princeton in time. He was a typical product of American blood, life and training. His sense of duty always overshadowed all other motives."

GOV. JOHNSON SHOCKED.

TELLS OF HIGH REGARD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

OTTAWA (Kan.) June 24.—Gov. Johnson of Minnesota, who is here today, when told of the death of ex-President Cleveland, said:

"I am deeply shocked to hear of Mr. Cleveland's death. I regard him as one of the country's greatest men and I predict that when his history is properly written he will be rated as one of the half-dozen greatest Presidents."

AMBITION TO SERVE PUBLIC.

COLEMAN SPEAKS HIGHLY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. LOUIS, June 24.—Upon being apprised of the death of former President Cleveland, former Lieut.-Gov. Norman J. Colman, who was Secretary of Agriculture during President Cleveland's first administration, said:

"I am deeply grieved and inexpressibly shocked at the sad intelligence. I cannot speak in terms strong enough in commendation of his most excellent qualities of both heart and hand.

"He had but one ambition and that was to serve the people of the United States in the best and most faithful manner. He was rather slow about forming friendship, but when once the bond of friendship was formed, it was a bond that was true and firm.

"President Cleveland was a most excellent man in every respect and his passing is a crushing blow to the country. My deepest sympathies go out to his stricken family. I will endeavor, if possible, to attend the funeral."

DANGER.

TROUBLE AHEAD FOR VENEZUELA.

EUROPEAN NATIONS MAY JOIN IN SPANKING CASTRO.

United States Will not Oppose Any Move Short of Seizing Territory. Congress's Inaction Prevented Intended Invasion of Defiant Country by American Troops.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Withdrawing the whole United States legation from Venezuela means that the Monroe doctrine will take a vacation from that country for a time. Great Britain, France and Holland have claims and they will be permitted to go almost as far as they like, short of seizing territory, in bringing President Castro to terms. France has withdrawn her lebation and Holland is expected to do so.

President Roosevelt and Secretary Root would like to administer a spanking, but they have not been able to interest the country in the quarrels with Castro and even Congress has been only lukewarm on the subject. A resolution empowering the President to deal with Venezuela as he thinks best was introduced by Senator Lodge at the last session, but is still in committee. If the Senate had adopted the resolution decisive action would have been taken. The War Department had prepared plans for invading Venesuela and everything was ready to pursue Castro into his most remote mountain fastnesses.

The State Department's explanation of the withdrawal of the legation from Caracas is that it was useless to keep it there longer as Castro ignored it.

Señor Veloz Goitacoa, Venezuela's representative here, has not heard from his government, but says he has no reason to expect a recall.

BRILLIANT SOCIETY WEDDING.

Robert Hayes Smith of San Francisco and Miss Sue Nicol of Stockton Married.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

STOCKTON, June 24.—The wedding of Robert Hayes Smith of San Francisco and Miss Sue Nicol, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Nicol of Stockton, was a brilliant society affair tonight at St. John's Episcopal Church, the Rt. Rev. William Ford Nichols, Bishop of California, officiating.

Two hundred friends of the young couple were invited to the church ceremony, and a large number joined the bridal party at the home of the bride's parents, where the wedding feast was enjoyed, and the guests were entertained in an enclosed apartment on the lawn grounds. At a late hour tonight, Mr. and Mrs. Smith departed for the southern part of the State on their bridal trip.

The wedding was notable for the handsomely gowned ladies participating and the completeness of the details of the charming affair which were arranged just as the popular bride directed.

The bridal party was composed of Mrs. Washington Dodge of San Francisco, as matron of honor; Miss Anna Peters, maid of honor; Misses Marguerite Butters, Ethel Shorb, Natilie Fore, May E. Colburn of San Francisco, and Ethel Clary and Hazel Burge of Stockton, as bridesmaids, charmingly gowned in pink costumes; George Cameron of San Francisco, as best man; William Humphrey, Emerson Warfield, Richworth Nicholson, Lieut. Galbraith and Sidney Woodruff of San Francisco, and H. W. Earls, F. A. Guerneey and Joseph Broderick of Stockton, as ushers.

STEAMER LA ROCHE SINKS.

Many Lives Believed to Have Been Lost in Panic Aboard Ship.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, June 24.—Special dispatches received here from Corunna indicate that the sinking of the steamer La Roche may prove a very serious disaster. The reports received here are very conflicting, but apparently there were nearly 100 passengers aboard the steamer in addition to a large crew.

The vessel was wrecked near Muros, and sunk within eight minutes. There was a terrible panic, and the rough seas made the launching of the boats an exceedingly difficult task. Some of them were smashed against the side of the sinking ship.

The fishermens' boats in the vicinity went to the rescue and succeeded in landing forty-seven at Muros, seventeen at another place nearby. As far as is known, no others were rescued.

A dispatch to a news agency here says it is reported the crew numbering fifty-three, and fifty-four of the passengers are safe.

THE MARKETS.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

For the first time in several years, Los Angeles territory has been forced to supply Arizona, Nevada and northern sections of California with potatoes. This, more than any other reason has caused the very firm market here. The ravages of the Colorado River has unearthed a great number of potato acres which by this time would have been harvested and on their way to this city. Instead of that, the shipments are in the opposite direction. The tubers which are being harvested here are all of good size, but the yield per acre is light—nearly 60 per cent less than last year. This in a measure is retrieved by the fact that the acreage has been increased nearly 80 per cent this spring. This brings the acreage up nearly to normal. The principal varieties already matured and selling are the Early and White Rose spuds. Prices were a trifle weaker yesterday morning, and a few were sold as low as $1 per cwt. on the street. Quoted prices range from $1.25 to $1.50. Receipts reported yesterday from the north were only 28 sacks.

Thirty-five cases of case-count eggs were traded on the exchange and the price held undeviated firmness. This was owing to low receipts, which totaled only 257 cases. There were several offerings of eastern eggs, but none were sold to take.

Butter receipts were 34,258 pounds. Prices were accordingly weaker, and offerings of creamery firsts were considerable. A car of country-made butter was passed on sale but not taken. There was a small sale of cooking butter at the current figure.

Longhorn cream cheese and limburger cheese were the three varieties placed on sale, but which remained unsold on 'change. Receipts were 3023 pounds, and prices a trifle weak.

Pink beans, limas and small whites were the chief offerings of that product. Receipts were not reported. Onion arrivals were only 2 sacks and Bermudas were the heaviest of the offerings.

Among the chief fruit arrivals were the McKevitts yellow free-stone peaches. They sold at $1.25 a box. Foster free stones sold at 90 cents. White peaches brought the same figure. Prune and Symonds plums were also among the late receipts. They sold from $1 to $1.50 a box. Other plum varities were plentiful. Black figs dropped as low as 15 cents a box, while the whites brought an average of $1.

Tomatoes are very slow in falling in price. The lowest grades brought 40 cents a crate on the street. Apricots, imported stock, sold at $1. Artichokes are slow movers and bring 10 cents a dozen. Asparagus averaged 9 cents a pound.

Fresh fish were scarce on the market, while there were sufficient large ones to fill the demand. Turtles from San Diego were plentiful.

GENERAL EASTERN.

HEAVY SALES IN WHEAT MARKET.

WEAK OPENING HAS FIRM CLOSING, AT ADVANCE.

Black Rust Reports from Nebraska Cause Activity in Chicago Pit. Drought in Indiana and Illinois Broken—Provisions Open Firm, but Sag in Prices Later in Day.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, June 24.—The wheat market opened weak because of lower cables and generally clear weather in the Southwest. Sentiment continued bearish until late in the day, when shorts became active bidders, resulting in a rally of more than 1c in all deliveries. The feature of trading was heavy sales of July and the purchase of September by elevator interests, which caused the latter option to rise ¼c premium over July. The active buying late in the session was due to the black-rust reports from Nebraska and to a better demand for cash wheat both here and at the seaboard. The market closed firm. July opened ¼c lower to ¼c higher at 85¼@85⅝ and advanced to 86¼. The close was at 86. The corn market was weak during the last half of the session because of the break in wheat and because of the favorable weather for the new crop. The market closed unsettled. July opened ¼@⅝c lower at 68⅛ to 68, sold off to 67¾, and then advanced to 68¼. The close was at 68⅜. There was considerable profit taking in oats early in the day owing to the break in other grains and to improved crop reports, advices from Indiana and Illinois claiming the drought in those States had been broken by rain last night. Later in the day, the market rallied, along with wheat and corn. July opened ¼@¾c lower, at 44⅞, sold off to 44¾, and then advanced to 45⅜, where it closed. Provisions opened firmer on buying of a general character, which was prompted by a 5@10c advance in live hogs. The market later lost most of its firmness owing to profit-taking sales, and to selling by local packers. At the close September pork was 5c higher, at 15.85; lard was unchanged, at 8.12½, and ribs were a shade lower at 8.37½.

Cash quotations were as follows: Flour was steady; No. 2 spring wheat, 86@1.00; No. 3 do., 85@97c; No. 2 yellow, 72@72½; No. 2 oats, 51¼; No. 3 white, 49@51½; No. 2 white malting barley, 1.02@; No. 1 northwestern flaxseed, 1.23½; short ribs, sides (loose,) 7.87½@8.12½; pork, per bbl., 14.62½@14.75; lard, per 100 lbs., 8.12½; short clear sides (boxed,) 8.25@8.50; whisky, basis of high wines, 1.35.

New York Cotton Markets.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO FRED DORR.]

NEW YORK, June 24.—Liverpool refused to meet the sharp break in the yesterday on liquidation of scattered July longs, and our market responded to the strong cables by an advance of some fifteen points on the near, and six on the distant. While generally favorable, the map showed heavy rains in Oklahoma and Augusta, where they were needed. The opinion is growing that there is a large short interest in the fall positions, but the local sentiment remains bearish on the crop outlook.

Following is the range of prices today:

THE CITY IN BRIEF

No "King's X" today!

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Japanese Bankrupt.

Furukawa Bros., merchants of Fresno, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court yesterday. The stated liabilities are $12,990 and the assets, $13,740.

Dinner and Talk.

The California Society of Colonial Wars and the Sons of the Revolution will hold an informal meeting at Hollenbeck cafe, Saturday noon. After a banquet, the members will discuss various matters of business.

Church Carnival.

A ten-day carnival will open tonight at Pico street and Central avenue for the benefit of the New Hope Baptist Church (colored.) Mayor Harper is expected to be present and deliver the opening address.

Convention Rate.

A round trip rate of $55 from California points will be granted to delegates to the convention of the American Bankers' Association at Denver. Tickets will be on sale from September 23 to 27, inclusive. Several local bankers will attend.

Fire in Garage.

The automobile garage of J. D. Hooker, No. 825 West Adams street, was partially destroyed by fire shortly before noon yesterday. Flames of unknown origin were discovered by a maid at the Hooker home. The automobile was not in the building at the time. Damage amounted to $250.

Down With It.

National Anti-Cigarette Day will be observed in Los Angeles on July 23. The churches and Sunday-schools throughout Southern California will observe the day by presenting pledges and giving out leaflets on the subject of the injurious effect of cigarettes. Literature will be supplied from the headquarters at the W.C.T.U.

Yacht Race Bonds.

Nearly 200 Chamber of Commerce yacht-race bonds have been disposed of and Secretary Wiggins is anxious to sell as many more before the Fourth of July, the date of the race. The holder of a bond is entitled to a free ride to San Pedro, a lunch on the Hermosa and an opportunity of following the yachts out to sea on the steamer.

Struck by Car.

Arthur Scott, a laborer, living at No. 308 East Fifth street, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon at First and Hope streets when a West Second street car struck him. Scott was at work near the track. He was thrown fifteen feet and rendered unconscious. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital where it was found he was suffering from a slight concussion of the brain. He was taken later to his home.

Railroaders' Picnic.

About 2000 members of the Southern Pacific Employés Association will enjoy a picnic next Saturday at Playa del Rey. Special cars will leave the Hill-street station of the Los Angeles-Pacific from 5 o'clock until 11. A baby show, men's and women's races, jumping, swimming, boat races, boxing and a ball game between the men of the different shops have been arranged. Suitable prizes, donated by the merchants of Los Angeles, will be awarded the winners.

The "B.O.B.'s."

A new benevolent order, "B.O.B.," has come to town. The full title is "Benevolent Order of Bees," and the incorporation papers have been issued. Good fellowship is the avowed object of "B.O.B." John Nelson is president; A. P. Harshberger, secretary, with office at Room 124, No. 132 South Broadway. About 150 members expect to be at the initial banquet at Levy's, this evening. Among the speakers will be, it is expected, Mayor Harper, State Senator H. S. G. McCartney, E. E. Johnson and other political and professional men.

Some Exceptional Verse.

Poets, with and without national reputations, contribute some excellent verse to the July Sunset. "The Master of Magnificence," by Herman Scheffauer; "Lines on a Loving Cup," by Charles Warren Stoddard; "The Irreconcilable," by Jacob Browne; "To a Sequoia Forest," by Clarence Urmy; "Invitation," by Mabel Potter Pitts; "At Through a Glass Darkly," by Miss Abbott Meclay, and "Poor Thespis," by Thomas Grant Springer, are some of the poets and their offerings that tend to make the July Sunset an exceptional number.

"POLY'S" GARDEN PARTY.

Ionian Alumni Exercises of Senior A Class Novel and Greatly Enjoyed. Commencement Tonight.

The Ionian alumni exercises of the senior A class of the Los Angeles Polytechnic High School were held last night in Polytechnic auditorium, every part of the house being crowded.

The entertainment was novel and greatly enjoyed. Miss Wright was hostess at a garden party, and requested Miss Robinson to assist her in handing out the souvenirs. The scene was well set in a garden decorated with fancy lanterns, the souvenirs (the Ionian pins) being placed on a table at one side and punch was served at the other. As the guests entered by twos and threes, the ladies decorated them with pins.

Miss Dolton recited a "kid" selection during the party, and she did it well, and Miss Taber played the part of fortune teller, which took the place of the class prophecy. Her "joshes" brought frequent laughter and applause. The party closed with the singing of class songs, the entire 110 students being massed on the stage.

The seniors had planned a surprise for the juniors, having dressed up a "spook" and sent him out into the audience with a small electric lantern in his hand, to "spot" the characters grilled in the songs. The juniors blocked the game for awhile. Finally the "spook" reached the rear of the hall, but he was seized by a group of fellows who made such a row that the plan had to be dropped.

The commencement exercises will be held in Temple Auditorium tonight.

MARYLAND SCHOOL.

Numerous fond mamas attended yesterday the child exercises of the Maryland school, conducted by the Misses Gough, on Westlake avenue. The little children of the kindergarten and primary grades were in gala costume. Their doll show was as pretty as could be, the tots taking the parts of wonderful mechanical dolls. There were dances, songs and other exhibitions of childish accomplishments.

TALKS ON TEETH
By the Rex Dental Co.

It Will Appeal to You
The man or woman who has nothing better to chew with than a set of "false teeth," whether they are in the form of a plate or a so-called "bridge," is in hard luck. They deserve sympathy.
The introduction by the Rex Dental Co. of the Alveolar method of supplying missing teeth without using plate or bridge marked an epoch in dental science.
There had never been anything offered previously which was so radical a departure from old methods.
Some people don't believe that the Alveolar teeth are practical even now, in spite of the thousands of cases to which we are able to point.
That is to be expected, of course, for most people hate to take up with new fangled things and won't do so until forced to.
"There are none so blind as those who won't see."

Very Satisfactory
San Francisco, Cal., June 12, 1908.
Rex Dental Co.
Gentlemen—I would like to add my testimonial, unsolicited, to the many you have already received for beauty and skilled workmanship.
The set of teeth you have made for me are perfect and satisfactory in every respect. I will only add I am deeply grateful for your patience, kindness and courtesy during the almost painless operation, because for twenty years I have suffered so much at the hands of other dentists. Yours faithfully,
MARGARET NORMAN,
1223 Myrtle St., Oakland, formerly Los Angeles.
We could quote hundreds of just such letters if space permitted.
The first step toward emancipation from a plate is to send our "Alveolar Dentistry." We send this book free to those who write for it. You can't read it and not be impressed by the sincerity of the author.
After you have finished the book and read the book of testimonials you will want Alveolar teeth, if you are wearing a plate or bridge.
All we require is that you have two or more teeth left in either jaw, tight or loose (we cure the cause of the looseness,) and with them to work from we restore all you have lost and make them as firm as a rock in the jaws.
The work is painless and permanent. Calls for no surgery or implantation.
The teeth look natural and feel natural—and our guarantee is back of it all.
The Alveolar work can not be obtained outside of the addresses given below.
